

Tea at Lex Church Monday Honors Don Campbells

By Delpha Jones

The Lexington Christian and Congregational church and Sunday schools gave a tea for the Don Campbell's on Monday night. First on the program was the introduction of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and daughters Laura and Doreen to the group, after which group singing was greatly enjoyed with Mr. Brent leading accompanied by Mrs. Brent at the piano. The singing was followed by prayer offered by Rev. L. G. Wetzel after which people spent a few minutes in visiting while the refreshments were prepared. The table was beautifully decorated with clear crystal servings and a candelabra with green candles and pom pom dahlias of pastel colors. Other flowers were pastel colored dahlias sitting about the room. Mrs. June Cooper poured coffee and Mrs. Audrey Ansted the punch. Others assisting about the rooms were: Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Munkers, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller, Mrs. Irene Nolan and daughter Phyllis, Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt, and Mrs. C. C. Jones. ### IONE School Notes

High school registration was in full swing starting Monday and continuing on through Tuesday. Electives to choose from this year will be Band, Commercial subjects, Physics, Algebra, and Geometry, Farm Shop, Home-making, Agriculture and Chorus.

Along with registration Monday morning, football physicals were given by Dr. McMurdo, assisted by Mrs. Velma Glass, to the boys at 9:00 in the gym. Everything was handled very smoothly.

Football players were also issued football gear and then followed some calisthenics with general first day routine completing the day. A great deal of enthusiasm was shown by both boys and coaches. Coach Wayne Pierce arrived Saturday so was also on hand to help coach Larry Pryse with his charges.

Other new teachers were arriving Monday. Some were adjusting themselves to their new surroundings while others were orientating themselves to their new class rooms. The first teachers' meeting will be 10:00 a. m. September 1st. The rest of the day teachers will make plans and readjust plans for the coming year.

Parents who would like to attend this year's National School Assembly programs are cordially invited to attend.

These dates are:
Sept. 15—9:00 a. m.
Sept. 28—3:00 p. m.
Dec. 8—11:00 a. m.
Feb. 1—1:00 p. m.
Apr. 10—12:50 p. m.

The school programs are usually very good. As a second reminder to parents: School the first day Sept. 6 will be in session until approximately 10:30. The children will be dismissed at this time, those who ride busses will return shortly after this dismissal time.

Plans are being made by the Ione P. T. A. to have a special reception for the teachers of the Ione school district, Friday Sept. 9 at 8:00 p. m. in the cafeteria. All parents, friends and people interested in your school are encouraged to attend.

Mrs. Robert DeSpain is the school secretary.
