Frank Turner Speaks To Soroptimist Club

Frank Turner, representative of the Benevolent Order of Elks, spoke to the Soroptimist club Thursday at their luncheon meeting at O'Donnell's, on the different good works that the lodge accomplishes. Many of them are local and some are national in scope.

Among the local things done are the scholarships given graduating seniors, 4-H scholarships, Boy Scout support, they support the Jr. Legion baseball team, the children's Christmas show, they have supported the hospital generously, they sponsor the blood bank and many other charities, too numerous to mention.

They help support a National home, Salvation Army, Red Cross and all the other charitable organizations.

The Soroptimist club this year is studying the different organizations in Heppner and surrounding areas to find out how they can all work together for the betterment of Morrow county.
