Heppner High School SCOOP

By Karen Prock

"A good time was had by all at the OSP Conference at Eugene," reports Meredith Thomson, Sharon Bryant, Jay Sumner and Louis Sayers. While at the Press Conference, the representatives stayed at the El Prado Motel, which is owned by Conley Lanham, formerly of Heppner. They visited with Sandra Lanham and Brenda Bengtson former classmates in H.H.S. Judy Thompson of Pendleton, another old Heppner friend, also stayed at the El Prado. Saturday night the students and their chaperons Mrs. Joyce Wilkinson and Mrs. James Thomson had dinner with the Bengtsons. Other dinner guests were Sally Cohn and Larry Molahan.

Sunday morning Meredith and her mother had breakfast with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harmon, former Heppner residents.

Now for the lowdown on what the teachers are doing—

Stanley Holm is teaching Algebra II and Geometry at the same time. He says, "I'm afraid someday the two geometry students will be doing an algebra lesson instead of geometry."

Vocations are the rage in W. J. Popham's social ec. classes. There will be speakers, reports by students and panel discussion to aid the seniors on selecting their vocations and what preparations they might need such as college.

Vivian White's freshman English class have just completed a course on library training, which enables them to go into the library and find their books without hunting half the period. The Spanish class just received their vocabulary cards, Mr. White stated. These cards are quite a help in studying, they have the word in English on one side and in Spanish on the other side.

Cdr. H. S. Huggill and family visited Mrs. Joyce Wilkinson. He is on leave from Chincoteague, West Virginia, and is on his way to report for duty in Iceland.

Marion Huggets Biology and General Science class have charts on trees and birds. They must identify the trees or birds by certain characteristics listed in their books and bring this report to class.

The Chemistry class have produced oxygen. Mr. Huggett then proved to the students that iron could be burned in pure oxygen.

Heppner Grade School News By Meredith Thomson

Intramurals have begun in the Grade School. The 7th and 8th grade boys have been playing flag or touch football. They have divided into 4 teams. Heppner Hotshots, Huskies, Eagles and Howells Howlers are the names selected for their teams. Weather has permitted only one game to be played. The Heppner Hotshots were the winners.

Since school has started, all grade school library books are being repaired in preparation to have them moved into the library in the new grade school building. This work is being done by Mrs. Marie Clary, librarian, and students taking library training.

Plans are underway for organizing a pep squad to support the basketball team. The 7th and 8th grade girls will make up the pep squad. Four cheerleaders will be chosen, two from the 7th and two from the 8th. The pep squad will have beanies with the lettering Ponyettes on them. This program is under the direction of Mrs. Lester Boulden, seventh grade teacher.
