

Heppner Adds Another Cayuse Win

Home Game Set Friday With Moro

By James Monahan
McEwan's winless Scotties are still winless as a result of the 21-6 defeat handed to them by the Heppner Mustangs on the Scotties' home field, Friday.

League win number three was notched in the books after the Mustangs rallied back from an early 6-0 deficit as a result of a fumble on the Mustang's own 5 yard line. Two plays later and the Scotties had the initial six points of the game.

The long booming kickoff had set the Mustangs on their own 12 when the fatal fumble occurred.

Bon McCabe took the McEwan's second kickoff and rolled down to his own 25, and in fourteen plays, the Mustangs moved up seventy-five yards to balance the score. A short flaring pass to Vic Groshens for the extra point gave Heppner the lead for good.

The Mustangs held the Scotties after the kickoff and forced them to kick out to their own 49. Quarterback, Skip Ruhl, hit Mustang end Vic Groshens for a 13 yard gain. Five plays brought the blue and gold gridders down to the McEwan 10. Mac Griffith then slashed off tackle for Heppner's second T. D. immediately after second stanza play started.

Further scoring for first half play stopped as the Mustang offensive squad lost spark and bogged down for some midfield ball playing.

Halftime statistics gave the horses a big lead in the ground gaining and passing departments with 205 yards to the Scotties' 73.

Second half play on the part of the Mustangs showed more pep and for periods of time demonstrated a great deal of zest. Scoring for both teams halted in the third quarter play when Skip Ruhl rambled into the end zone from 16 yards out for Heppner's last score of the game. A line buck left the final score at 21-6.

Further excitement in the game died away until the waning minutes of the last quarter when a McEwan back broke away for 45 yards down to the Mustang 2 yard line. With first and ten to go the Mustangs put forth a terrific goal line stand and drove the Scotties back to the 8 yard line.

Here the Heppner gridders took the pigskin to the McEwan 19 where the game ended.

Not only was the game poorly played but the Mustangs also lost the services of left halfback Mac Griffith who broke his finger. The injury proved to be too painful for him to participate in this coming week's tilt with the Moro Huskies.

Scrimmaging for the Mustangs this week has been heavy for the Huskies are rated as a top grid club.

A scrimmage game Tuesday with the Lone Cardinals gave the Heppner gridders their first dose of wet weather football. The contest proved to be fairly successful as both teams showed improvement since their first encounter.

Even though the Mustangs step out of league play for this Friday night tilt on the home field, school spirit and boosting is expected from both students and homefolks.
