VALBY CHURCH SCENE OF WEDDING OF BARBARA PROCK, HERBERT PETERSON

Miss Barbara Prock, daughter of Vernon Prock and Mrs. Maurice Elder and Herbert Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peterson of Ione were married at a candlelight ceremony at the Valby Lutheran church, Saturday, October 29th at 4:00 p. m. The Reverend Merlin Zier of Heppner officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Wayne Prock, wore a waltz length gown of ice blue rice crystellette and a shoulder length blue sequin covered veil which was held in place with a small crown. She carried red roses centered in stephanotis with white streamers on a white Bible.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Orville Cutsforth, Jr., sister of the bride, who wore a coral ballerina length gown with a matching shell cap. She carried a nosegay of white spider mums.

Robert Peterson was best man for his brother and Roy Lindstrom and Tom White were ushers.

Mrs. Lucy Peterson sang "Because", and "Always". Mrs. C. C. Carmichael played the wedding music.

The bride's mother wore a red and navy gown with white accessories and a white rose corsage.

The bridegroom's mother was unable to attend because of illness.

A reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Prock. After the bridal couple cut the first piece of the three tiered wedding cake which was topped with a miniature bridal couple, it was served by Mrs. Wayne Prock, assisted by Mrs. Jack Ployhar. Mrs. H. F. Scritsmeyer poured, Mrs. John Skuzeski presided at the punch bowl, Mrs. James Prock had charge of the gift table and Mrs. Calvin Sherman was in charge of the guest book.

The bride chose for something old, her Bible; something new, her gown; something borrowed, a lace handkerchief; something blue, the traditional blue garter which was given by Mrs. H. F. Scritsmeyer, aunt of the bride.

For going away, the bride wore a green suit with avocado green accessories and a rose bud corsage.

After a short trip, the couple will be at home in Heppner.

Relatives coming from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. John Skuzeski and sons and Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Scritsmeyer of Portland.

Mrs. Leonard Tells Club The History Of Christmas Seals

Mrs. Mervin Leonard, president of the Morrow county TB and Health association, told the Soroptimist club Thursday noon at their meeting at O'Donnell's, about the things accomplished by the association.

She told the history of the Christmas Seals and stated that they finance the work done by the organization. 74% of the money raised by the seal sale stays in the county.

The Morrow county group was the first in Oregon to think of buying X-ray equipment for the hospital to be used in giving chest X-rays.

Mrs. C. C. Carmichael, treasurer of the organization told how the money was spent here in Morrow county and stated that each year the seal sale seems to decrease.

Mrs. Mary Van Stevens gave each person present a bouquet of chrysanthemums in honor of National Flower week.

Ione Host To The Rebekah Convention For This District

The thirty fourth annual Rebekah convention of district No. 20, was held at the grange hall in Ione, Oregon on October 27.

The hostess lodge, Bunchgrass No. 91, opened the afternoon session with the noble grand, Mabel Ring, presiding.

Chairs were surrendered to the following convention officers: Edith Matthews, chairman; Ruth Bergstrom, vice chairman and Gladys Drake, secretary-treasurer.

The honored guest, Edna M. Bradley, president of Rebekah Assembly, was introduced and welcomed by the members. Her song, "I Would Be True", was sung.

The address of welcome was given by Catherine Thorne of Bunchgrass and the response by Vern Batty of Mistletoe.

The roll call of past chairmen found eleven present and a tribute was given them by Bunchgrass.

Various demonstrations and exemplifications of the lodge work were given by the different lodges. A paper on How a Rebekah lodge can best serve the community, was given by Elaine Rietmann of Bunchgrass. Holly No. 139 extended an invitation to hold the convention in Lexington in 1957. The 1956 convention will be held in Heppner, with the following officers in the chairs: Ruth Bergstrom, chairman; Florence McMillan, vice chairman and Altha Kirk, secretary-treasurer. Edna Bradley answered questions from the question box.

Coffee was served immediately after the close of the afternoon session. A banquet was held in the dining room at 6:00 p. m. to over 100 members and guests. A short program was given prior to the evening session.

Lodge convened at 7:30 p. m. with Bunchgrass in charge. A 25-year jewel was presented to Harriet Brown of Bunchgrass. Draping the charter in memory of the departed members was given by Sans Souci. A tribute to 50 year members of the lodges in this district was given by Bunchgrass. The following members were honored and received gifts for their years of faithful service; Emma Jones and Sadie Sigsbee of Sans Souci; Trina Parker, Elizabeth Campbell, Minnie Cicero and Ray McAlister of Holly; Dela Corson, Clara Kincaid, Katie Waters of Bunchgrass.

A tribute to Edna Bradley was given by Mistletoe. She thanked the convention for their hospitality and complimented the chairman on the instructive meeting
