Mustangs End Season With 31-0 Loss To Echo

By James Monahan

Heppner's Mustangs closed the '55' football season by absorbing a stunning 31-0 defeat at the hands of George Delapp's Cougars from Echo.

After last Thursday's 13-0 win over a pep-filled Umatilla "11" the Mustangs had high hopes of posting a win over Echo for the district championship.

The Mustang's thoughts of victory took a sudden dip when a Cougar quarterback began his bulls-eye passes to a 5' 6" Cougar end. With four minutes left in the first half and the game still at a scoreless deadlock, Echo pepped up and gained a lightning fast half-time lead after two 17-42 yard touchdown passes.

Two third-quarter touchdowns and a final period yardair aerial thrust gave the Cougars their final tallies. On the ground the Mustangs balanced up with the Cougars but through the air was a different story.

Three Mustang drives within the Cougar twenty came to a standstill as six costly fumbles for the horses only sealed the door of defeat tighter.

Although the Mustangs chalked up 4 defeats, they played 500 per cent ball and ended the best season that Mustang fans have seen in 4 years.

Basketball now will top the sports chart for Heppner fans as well as athletes.

A schedule of the '55-56' season shows that a complete change in conference and district play is in store for the Mustang quintet.

Last year's state champions, Knappa, are to be an early season opponent and this will prove to be a real contest.

in the new section, there will be no curbing and only flush-type markers will be allowed.

Plans to supply water throughout the entire cemetery are progressing which will make it possible for relatives to care for graves in the older section or they may purchase permanent care there if desired, it was announced.

A landscaping project will be started in the near future and a building was recently completed on the property to provide storage for many supplies needed at the cemetery and to provide cover for machinery.

Methodist Parsonage Club Meets Here

Methodist ministers and their families from six neighboring communities gathered at the Methodist parsonage in Heppner Tuesday, November 8, for the bi-monthly meeting of Umatilla sub-district Parsonage Club. This group has the double purpose of fellowship and business at its gatherings. Under the heading of business it was decided to ask the Rev. Ira Gillet, missionary to Africa, to come to Echo for a sub-district meeting Monday, November 21.

Rev. and Mrs. Boulden were the hosts at the no-host dinner. Those attending were the Rev. and Mrs. Robert McNabb and children of Fossil, Rev. and Mrs. James Workman and children of Echo, Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Davis of Hermiston, Rev. and Mrs. James Wilson of Pendleton, Rev. and Mrs. Bruce Hollingsworth and son of Weston and Rev. and Mrs. Donald Campbell of Milton-Freewater.

Panel Planned For Annual Meet

Plans for a conservation panel at the annual meeting of the Heppner Soil Conservation district, set for Jan. 31 at the Lexington Grange hall, were outlined at a meeting of district supervisors Tuesday night in the bank building. A speaker from Oregon State college and a conservation film will be included on the program.

A recognition dinner in honor of Donald Peterson, conservation farmer of the year, sponsored by the Morrow-Heppner chamber of commerce, to be held Monday evening, Nov. 21, at Cutsforth cabin, was announced.

The monthly progress report showed a district farm plan completed on 1729 acres on the John Eubanks ranch, Ione; 3880 acres of conservation surveys completed to bring the district total to 750,819 acres; 39 acres of land leveled for irrigation and one irrigation dam completed on the Dallas Craber ranch, Heppner. Engineering surveys for land leveling were completed on 198 acres and plans started on three irrigation dams and on 4000 linear feet of stream control.

Attending the session were Newt O'Harra, Lexington, chairman; Donald Peterson, Raymond Lundell, Ione; J. J. Wightman, Raymond French, N. C. Anderson, Tom Wilson, Heppner and Alvin Wagenblast, Lexington.

All Saints' Sets All-Member Canvass

The annual every-member canvass of All Saints' Episcopal church will begin this Sunday with a corporate communion of the congregation at 11 o'clock. This will be followed by a dinner in the parish house served by members of the women's auxiliary.

At the dinner the needs of the parish for 1956 will be briefly explained by members of the canvass committee of which Jack H. Bedford is chairman.

The canvass begins the second Sunday of November each year in all of the Anglican communion all over the world.

The dinner and service is for all members of the church, their children and interested friends.

club members gathered at least ten specimens of various insects, mounting them for their exhibit.

Other home economics projects carried by members were the Charmingly Yours clothing project with thirteen enrolled, fifty two articles were made valued at $82.54; Sew, It's Fun, four members making 17 articles valued at $13.37; Teen-Age Miss, a clothing project with ten enrolled making 30 articles valued at $113.46; Clothing for Fun and Sun, a clothing III project that had nine members enrolled, making 52 articles valued at $419.30.

Ten advanced members, carrying clothing IV and V, which are classed as the advanced projects, completed 72 articles that were valued at $842.04, saving this amount in clothing that would otherwise have been purchased by these older girls. Two Lexington girls were enrolled in home-making. Nineteen members were enrolled in divisions I, II, & III of cooking, preparing 783 dishes and 149 meals which were served to 3,288 people.

They not only learned to care for animals, prepare tasty meals, how to sew or select their wardrobe, but learned how to be good citizens by working and playing together. Forty-five men and women volunteered as local leaders for these thirty clubs. Leaders of twenty, or two-thirds of the clubs organized, had a 100% completion of members enrolled in their clubs. Six junior leaders assisted various clubs throughout the year.

4-H Club work is available to all boys and girls between the ages of nine and twenty-one years. As clubs are being organized for the new club year, boys and girls who are interested in belonging to a 4-H Club are invited to enroll. By starting young, boys and girls have the opportunity to learn to do by doing over the period of time they are enrolled in this voluntary organization. Many members carry pro-
