

Lex Den Mothers At Training Meet

By Delpha Jones

The Blue Mountain council of the Boy Scouts held their cub scout training session for den mothers at the Heppner school house on Saturday from 8:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. with a fine number of well qualified teachers in charge. At this meeting cooperation between the parents, den mothers and cub master was greatly stressed, as was the attendance to the pack meetings.

Mrs. LaVerne Henderson of Lexington was one of the teachers of the morning. Those attending this training session from Lexington were: Mrs. Marj. Angel, Mrs. LaVerne Henderson, Mrs. Cecil Jones, and Mrs. M. V. Nolan president of the local P-TA, the sponsoring body of the local cubs. At noon a delightful luncheon was served at O'Donnell's Cafe.

Mr. Frank Kurth of Wassau, Wisconsin is visiting his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Majeske.

Miss Patricia Majeske who has been employed as nurse at the Pioneer Memorial hospital is now attending nurse at the Heppner Clinic.

The Holly Rebekah lodge met at the usual time on Thursday night with the N. G. Jo Irvin presiding. Minutes were read and approved, and the absent ones noted. The three links club report was given at which time a food sale for Nov. 19th at the Lexington post office was announced, and a card party for early December was announced, the admission to be $1 a couple which will include refreshments. All these things are a benefit to help floor the front of the I. O. O. F. hall to be used as a recreation hall. Later refreshments were served by Annie Keene and June Cooper.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lacey of Walla Walla were visitors at the Chas. C. Jones home over the weekend.

A meeting of the Sunday school teachers was held at the Ken Peck home last Tuesday evening. Plans for programs for the future were discussed. The Sunday before Thanksgiving there will be a small program with singing and some readings, and the Sunday before Christmas there will be a lengthy program in which all groups of the Sunday school will take part. After a most successful meeting refreshments were served by the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Peck to the following: Rev. and Mrs. Norman Northrup, Douglas Price, Audrey Ansted, June Cooper and Delpha Jones.

Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt, Mrs. Carl Marquardt, and Mrs. Omer Laney were hostesses to a cradle shower on Friday night honoring Paul Douglas Price, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Price, at the Lexington Christian and Congregational church. The evening was spent in playing games with door prizes being won by Dona Barnett, and Mrs. May McCall. After Mrs. Price opened her many lovely and useful gifts refreshments of cake and ice cream and coffee were served to the following ladies: Mesdames Ken Palmer, Harold Beach, O. G. Breeding, Lloyd Forshee, Mervin Leonard, Jim Bloodsworth, Jack Barak, Bertha Hunt, Alex Hunt, Frances McMillan, May McCall, Norma Marquardt, George Allyn, W. E. McMillan, Karl Miller, Vernon Munkers, Trina Parker, Bill Parsons, Cecil Jones, Audrey Ansted, Misses Patricia Majeske, Dona Barnett, and Barbara Bloodsworth, and the hostesses. The cake was a beautiful sheet cake with an umbrella and rain drops of pink and yellow roses in white, pink and yellow icing.

The Amicitia club met at the E. E. Peck home last Tuesday evening with 12 members present. High prize was won by Jerry Doherty, second high Mildred Davidson and traveling, Euloala Corley of Ione. Refreshments were served by the hostess Emma Peck. Let's don't forget the P-TA card party to be held Nov. 18th 8 p. m. in the school gym.

Bud Turner and three children and Dewie Irvin of Grants Pass visited at the George Irvin home over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Padberg were Pendleton visitors Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. E. E. Peck and children and Ann Covall were guests of the Peck children's grandmother, Mrs. Emma Peck in Pendleton on Saturday.

The film Martin Luther was given at the Christian church on Monday evening with a good attendance.

The Dens 1-2-3 all met at the homes of the respective den mothers on Monday evening at 4 p. m. and work has begun in earnest with the fall program. The next pack meeting will be held Nov. 30 at the school auditorium with the theme for this month pilgrims and pioneers.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nichols were business visitors in Pendleton on Monday where Mr. Nichols consulted a physician.

Let's not forget Grange to be held on Saturday night at the Lexington Grange hall. The G. A. A. girls entertained the football players at a party held in the I. O. O. F. hall on Friday evening. The room was cleverly decorated in the school colors of black and orange ponpons, and miniature pennants with each player's name on a pennant. Bingo was the main game of the evening, with group singing with Miss Jewell Boone at the piano. Also dancing was enjoyed which consisted of ballroom and mixer types like the Virginia Reel, Hokey Pokey and Bunny Hop. Refreshments of snacks, cokes, cake and ice cream were served with the ice cream being furnished by Mrs. Roy Martin to honor Tommy Martin's birthday which was Saturday. Two of the cakes were cleverly decorated to resemble the lines on a football field, complete with goal posts and players; and one cake was in the shape of a football. These cakes were made by Inez O'Neal, Cherry Grey and Sue Laney. Those present were the high school students, and 7th and 8th grades. Mr. and Mrs. Brent, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mathews, Miss Jewell Boone and Mr. and Mrs. Covall, who acted as chaperones.

Lexington motored to Irrigon to the playoffs for football last week on Tuesday. Lexington played at Weston at this time winning 28-6 and then played Umapine, losing 20-6. Touchdowns were made by Gerry Messenger and 3 by Vern Nolan. Mr. and Mrs. Brent entertained with a party at their home following the games.

Girls volleyball practice began Nov. 7 and boys basketball practice started today.

The Gar Leyva's had the following as their guests during hunting season: Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Damon, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lemon and Mr. and Mrs. Armin Wihlon of Redmond.

The Lexington Altar Society met last week at the Bob Kilkeny home. After a business meeting, refreshments were served.

Now you Know!

The answer to everyday insurance problems*

By Turner Van Marter & Bryant

QUESTION: I carry a Personal Articles all risk insurance policy and would like to know if the new set of golf clubs I gave my wife is covered automatically or if I must report it.

ANSWER: There is Automatic coverage for 30 days if you already are insuring any of that class of personal possessions. After 30 days the new clubs must be reported to be insured. Excluded from this rule are additions to stamp and coin collections. They are not automatically insured.

*If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office, we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be no charge or obligation of any kind.
