

Hepner High School SCOOP

By Karen Prock

November 10 is the date. What happens then? The Junior Class is sponsoring a Sadie Hawkins dance. Tickets will be sold Wednesday and Thursday noon in the Hepner high school hall. Girls squire the boys in this event. Everyone dress "Dogpatch Style", and maybe you will win the prize for the best dressed couple. School will be dismissed Friday, in honor of Armistice Day. Homecoming queen Nancy Anderson and princesses Karen Prock and Laurel Allstott reigned over the Hepner-Umatilla game. Eddie Brosnan, captain of the Mustangs, pinned chrysanthemums on the girls at half time. Books have been purchased to teach educational filing to the office practice classes, and the grade and high school office girls. The Office practice classes received a folder containing files and material to be filed. They will be guided by this book, "File It Right."

Report cards came out Wednesday. The Mustang staff met Tuesday after school to set up the work schedule for the year. Jim Walker has to have a ride out to Ruggs every night between 5 and 6 o'clock. It would be appreciated if anyone going this way would give Jim a ride.

Mrs. Zivney's mother, Mrs. Lulu Stevens, all of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Rash also visited at the home of Rash's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rash.

Ed Skoubo, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charlie DaHass, Corvallis, and Roger Cawood, of Portland, returned from an elk hunting trip, with all of them successful except Skoubo. The only other elk turned in at Hayes Market so far this season was by Mrs. Wait Wyss.

Mrs. Elvin Ely was hostess for a pink and blue shower at her home on Thursday of last week in honor of Mrs. Leonard Bedord. Assisting here were Mrs. Charles Forthman, Mrs. Everett Daniels, Mrs. Max Vannoy, Mrs. Claud Worden, Mrs. Myron Watts and Mrs. Maxine Moore. Also on the committee, but unable to attend were Mrs. Ed Skoubo, Mrs. Fred Garrett, Mrs. Harold Kress, Mrs. Lee Harwood and Mrs. Elmer Messenger. There were 40 present, and 20 ladies that were unable to attend sent gifts. Mrs. Bob Stewart won a prize in a game played. Many lovely gifts were received by the honoree.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Worden, McMinnville, arrived Thursday of last week to visit several days at the home of Worden's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Worden.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Bishop were Bishop's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Weeks, Spokane, Wash., and his brothers and sisters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bishop, Walla Walla and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Bishop and daughter Barbara, Echo.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kress, of Portland, were overnight guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Briggs one night last week.

Charles Nickerson left on Thursday of last week for Jackson, Wyo., where he will meet his sister, Mrs. Ethel Nethercott, and they will go to Fort Collins, Colo., to visit relatives. From there they will go to Missouri to visit Nickerson's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nickerson, Jr.

The Ladies Aid society of Community church met for an all day work meeting at the church on Wednesday, Nov. 2. Hostesses were Mrs. Esler Moore and Mrs. Algy Taylor. There were 10 present. Members were asked to have packages for the Christmas box for the Open Door Children's Home at Hazard, Ky. at the next

Top Grade Stock Prices Hold Firm

HERMISTON—For the second week in a row, a Hepner consignator was among those who received top prices at the Hermiston livestock auction Nov. 4, sale manager Delbert Anson reports. Tom Currin, Hepner, earned $8.75 a head for six weaner pigs at the Nov. 4 sale, while the previous week O. E. Rice of Hepner was paid $12.30 a hundredweight for four sows of 1665 pounds.

Although top prices held in line, there was a wide spread to the lows due to quality, Anson said. Generally, quality was down from the preceding week.

For the next sale, the auction will probably need bred ewes and feeder and fat lambs, Anson said.

Others receiving top money were: John Hoskins, Stanfield, $16.20 a hundredweight for 20 feeder pigs of 1580 pounds.

A. C. Helse, Ritter, $14.70 a hundredweight for two fat hogs of 415 pounds.

meeting on Nov. 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Acton, Pendleton were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Carpenter.

The 4-H Rabbit and Poultry club was reorganized on Tuesday, Nov. 1, at the home of the leader, Mrs. Cecil Hamilton. Name chosen was the Bunny Chick club.

Following officers were elected: Edna Hoffman, president; Larry Fussell, vice-president; Lorelei Hamilton, secretary; Albert Rogers, flag pledge leader; Gwen Fussell, reporter. There were 11 members present.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marlow, Mrs. Nathan Thorpe and daughters Sandra and Teresa and Jerry Ann Carroll went to La Grande on Wednesday of last week, where the ladies attended a bridal shower for Miss Carroll at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. H. Dockweiler.

Sunday, Nov. 13, will be grange Sunday, at which time members of Greenfield grange will attend church in a group. Following the services there will be a potluck dinner at the grange hall, to which everyone is invited to attend.

D. W. Phelps, Walla Walla, $10.75 a head for 50 ewes between five and six years old.

Jack Rice, Hermiston, $16.80 a hundredweight for two fat lambs of 230 pounds.

Wicket Brothers, Pilot Rock, $6.90 a hundredweight for 10 feeder lambs of 690 pounds.

H. B. Gautenbein, Boardman, $8.35 a hundredweight for a 1200 pound Holstein cow.

R. G. Blahm, Hermiston, $147.50 for a Holstein cow.

Hynd Brothers, Cecil, $18.70 a hundredweight for seven steer calves of 2980 pounds.

John Nordhim, Pendleton, $18.20 a hundredweight for an Angus feeder steer of 930 pounds.

C. A. Fowler, Pendleton, $12.30 a hundredweight for an 1175 pound white face bull.

PONY KICKS

By Mary Stewart

The Hepner school system observed Education Week November 7-11. Parents visited classes every day, and several mothers were entertained Monday at lunch. Every class had a welcoming committee to show the parents around.

Last week $110 worth of new books were ordered for the grade school library. Already 121 new books have been received and the cataloging of those are now complete.

The grade school band is working on Christmas music for their Christmas program this year. Mr. Norman Peters, the band teacher, reports that although a definite schedule of tunes have not been established yet, several pieces have been started.

Boardman Senior Is Carnival Queen

By Mary Lee Marlow

Betty Olmstead, high school senior, was crowned queen of the school carnival Saturday night. Bill Coder was her escort. Princesses and escorts were Wanda Hug and Bud Douthit, junior; Barbara Gantenbein and Gerald Anderson, sophomore; Edna Hoffman and Bobbie Locks, freshman. Bill Thorpe crowned the queen. Of the fifteen prizes to be won during the evening Bob Mulcrone won about seven of them. The basketball jamboree of the Morrow-Umatilla league will be held in the Boardman gymnasium on Thursday, Dec. 1. Schools that will participate are Hepner, Ione, Lexington, Stanfield, Echo, Umatilla, Irrigon and Boardman.
