Soroptimists Hear Aims And Objectives Of Civic League

Mrs. Bradley Fancher, president of the Heppner Civic League and Mrs. William Sowell, treasurer of the kindergarten board told the Soroptimist club Thursday at their luncheon meeting at O'Donnell's, about the aims and objectives of the Civic League and the financing of the kindergarten.

Mrs. Fancher spoke on the League's main money making project, the rummage sale and told what they did for publicity. They have found the telephone a very effective way to advertise, also classified advertisements and the theater. They send posters to other towns and have found that word of mouth a very good means of letting people know about the sale. One of their best ways of publicity is having music play in front of the place of sale. One thing they try to do is not to hesitate when other organizations ask for help on projects.

Mrs. Sowell told of the cost of running the kindergarten. They ran at a small loss last year, but have a larger enrollment this year and too their expenses aren't so great now that they are in the school. The heating was a great problem in the building they were in last year.

In keeping with National Education Week, Darrell Blake, senior at Heppner high school, gave a talk urging everyone to support National Education week and to visit the school at any time, not just during this week.
