Armistice Day
 Nov. 11th is Armistice Day, a day which ended hostilities in World War I in 1918, thirty-seven years ago. How wonderful this world would be if we could devote our time and minds to scientific research, and useful arts, and enjoy every living minute, in peaceful pursuits. May every day be an Armistice Day.

Fads and Fancies
 We have all noticed the new fad, high heeled shoes. They look real nice, girls. Alyce Mason with her black suede heels with the arrows on the toes. Sharon Cutsforth and her brown heels to match her skirt. Judy Howton with her suede pumps that match her lilac sweater and black and lilac jumper. I hear to, that she made her jumper, very nice job.

Judy Mason and white heels, looked real nice. Louise Botts and her brown and white pumps looked very nice too. Carolyn Crabtree, with her toe-less black heels, looked real sharp. Sue Coleman has a new pair of black heels with a ribbon crossed in front. Very cute, Sue. Grace McCabe has a dainty white pair of pumps. Ann Coleman with black suede flats with her gray skirt, looks just like Hollywood. ? Snickerdoodles ?
 Some of the girls that are not in home-living class asked what they were doing. The girls replied, "were making Snickerdoodles". What are they? Well, they are just cookies. Here is the recipe:
 1 cup soft shortening, 1 1/2 cup sugar, 2 eggs.
 Sift together and stir in; 2 and 3/4 cups sifted flour, 2 tps. cream of tartar, 1 tsp. soda, 1/2 tsp. salt.
 Chill dough. Roll into balls, the size of small walnuts. Roll in mixture of two tablespoons sugar and two teaspoons cinnamon. Place about two inches apart on ungreased baking sheet. Bake until lightly browned, but still soft. These, puff up and then flatten out with crinkled tops. Oven temp. 400 degrees. Bake 8-10 minutes. Try them and you'll like them.
Open House
 P. T. A. was held Wednesday, November 9, with the school house open to all P. T. A. members. All the teachers were in their rooms when the parents came in and showed them the work the students had been doing. After they had gone through the rooms they all went back over to the cafeteria for their regular meeting. After the meeting refreshments were served.

Coffee Hour
 The homemaking class of Ione which consists of girls and our teacher, Mrs. Schmidt, who, planned and prepared a coffee hour for the home-living class mothers. The coffee hour was on Thursday, at 10 a. m. and held in the home living room.

For the past week the girls have made several different types of cookies and light snacks. The girls did all of the preparing of refreshments, decorating and the program.

The program consisted of a tap dance by Sandra Eubanks and a living panel discussion. The panel was made up of girls and mothers, problems and questions of the girls were discussed.

Everyone has worked very hard and feel their efforts were appreciated and enjoyed.

Senior Class News
 The seniors are having night practice Thursday night of this week and Monday of next week. Then Tuesday night is our play; Hope to see you all there.

In our American problems class we all wrote something on local problems. There are three girls in high school home living from the senior class.

Athletic Dinner
 The annual athletic dinner given by the Masonic Lodge was held Monday evening at the Lodge. The main dish was turkey with all the trimmings. All the Lexington and Ione boys and the men teachers were invited. Ernie Drake and Bob Pryse and all the men teachers gave short speeches. Two hot rod movies were shown afterwards which proved to be educational as well as entertaining. Alyce Mason, Carolyn Crabtree, Darlene Drake, and Mardine Baker served a delicious dinner.

Mr. Bob DeSpain as master of ceremonies, is to be complimented on the fine way he handled the dinner talks and entertainment.

We all want to thank the Masons for a wonderful time.

Assembly Program
 On Monday, November 7 our student body was entertained by Stanfield, a master magician and ventriloquist. His stunts were very much enjoyed by the students and adults.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Seen Monk's "Better Half"?

Monk McCarthy's latest creation has the town talking again. You can see it parked in front of Monk's auto repair shop on Maple.

Remember last year Monk cut two cars in half, and put their front ends together? You couldn't tell if the thing was coming or going. Sure attracted attention.

Now Monk's taken Tog Morgan's old sedan and completely restored one half of it. One side is as good as new, the other looks like—well, Tog's old car. "Sort of a before-and-after demonstra-
