Senior Class News

The senior class presented two one-act plays last Tuesday, "The Bachelors' League" and "The Stuffed Shirt". There weren't many people present because of the bad weather, although the plays were successful. We took in around $7.00 without paying our bills yet. Pie and cake ala-mode, coffee, and pop were served following the plays.

The seniors are busy writing up the class history, prophecy, and will for the annual.

Junior Class News

We, the junior class, this week received our class rings and pins. Three students bought rings with blue sets and the rest bought them without. We have started planning for our prom also. We have had fun in our English class since we started diagram-

NORAH'S model, Miss Sharon Bryant, models one of the many smart Jantzen knit outfits that have been purchased especially for the Christmas trade. Shown is a matching knit skirt and shrug which is worn with a plain white knitted blouse. Miss Bryant is holding one of the many attractive genuine leather handbags that Norah's is displaying.

Sophomore Class News

Anne Belle Coleman had a misfortune while she was stepping from the trampoline to the bleachers. She was not hurt seriously.

Louise Botts is absent because of illness.

In history class Kay and Anne Belle made time chart of Rome and Louise made a map of India. Some like the snow and cold weather we have and some dislike it very much.

Movie

The Martin Luther film was shown in the lone school cafeteria by Mr. Ricketts of Umatilla. There was a nice crowd in spite of the weather. The film was very educational and enjoyed by all who attended.

Volleyball Game Cancelled

The lone high school girls' volleyball team had a game scheduled for Wednesday, November 16, at Irrigon. It was cancelled because of the bad weather. It will be played at a later date.

The Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders are busy making their dresses for basketball season. We hope all the students of both grade and high school will be good sports and cheer to all the games possible. We hope our community will support the team as they have been doing.

Band Uniforms

Our high school band has had trouble fitting into their last year's uniforms. Monday, November 21, at 1:00, the band mothers are going to help us fit them, and take up and let out seams. We, the band members really appreciate it.

O. E. A. Dinner

The O. E. A. dinner which was to be held Thursday, Nov. 17, was cancelled until Thursday, Dec. 8. This cancellation was due to the weather.

Bad News!!!!

The grade and high school band presents: "A Concert in Swing" Nov. 30 at 8 p. m. at Lone school cafeteria. Help support your band.

Lone News
