

Heppner High School SCOOP

By Karen Prock

Classes will be dismissed Wednesday night for the remainder of the week, due to Thanksgiving. The Oregon Scholastic Press Bulletin commended James Monahan's idea of pictures in the Hehisch. James purchased stamp size pictures of Skip Ruhl and pasted one in each copy featuring Skip as Athlete of the Month.

Members of the Future Business Leaders of America worked Saturday at the civic building making green garlands for the chamber of commerce. They did not finish the job Saturday so they plan to work more during this week.

Miss Bonnie Wiley, Director of Communications, of Central Washington College of Education, Ellensburg, Wash., will be able to attend the Quill and Scroll initiation and banquet. The Heppner organization named their chapter in honor of Miss Wiley last year.

Melvin Derby, representative of the Oregon Temperance League discussed the "Alcohol Problem" Nov. 21 with the freshman and sophomore classes.

Heppner Mustangs will participate in the basketball jamboree to be held at Boardman, Dec. 1. The funds taken in from the jamboree will be used by the league for trophies for various sports and to pay the commissioners for assigning officials for the year.

C. W. Johnson, principal of the grade schools, has moved into his office in the new building.

Several weeks ago water pipes broke in a class room not being used and flooded the hall and two classrooms. They took off the wallboard and took part of the floor out enabling the water to dry. The rooms have dried out and are ready to rebuild.

Marie Clary, librarian, and the student librarians are helping move the elementary library into the new building. The grade school library will be open five out of six periods a day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Turner returned last Tuesday from an extended trip East.

The sixth grade is giving a play entitled "The First Thanksgiving", Wednesday at 10:30. It will be presented to an assembly of students from the third to the seventh grades. Mr. Donald Ellsworth, the sixth grade teacher, says it will include dancing, singing and comedy dialogue.

The seventh and eighth grade students old tickets for the Junior Class Play. Mr. Stanley Holm, the play director had announced that any child who sold five adult tickets would be given one free pass to the play.

A cup cake sale was held Tuesday noon to raise money for the grade school volleyball team, the Ponettes.

The entire grade school attended the Junior class play matinee Thursday noon. It started at 1:45 and lasted till about 3:30.

HUMPHREYS DRUG COMPANY is again featuring one of the largest stocks of cameras and photographic equipment in Eastern Oregon. Here Clem Stockard is showing Mrs. Joan Miller one of the new inexpensive movie cameras the store is displaying for early shoppers. The store carries a complete line of camera, projectors and photographic needs.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Carter and four sons left Friday to make their home in Payette, Idaho, where Carter is the manager of the J. C. Penney Co.

Mrs. Dick Brunner and family arrived Saturday from Aberdeen, Washington to join Mr. Brunner who is the new manager of the J. C. Penney Co. here.
