PONY KICKS

By Mary Stewart

The grade school pep club will make its first appearance Wednesday afternoon, December 14. Named the Ponyettes, they will be clothed in red and white, and will wear red beanies with their names on them.

The club was organized to support the boys through the basketball season and officers were chosen several weeks ago. They are: Marjory Peck, pres., Shirley Van Winkle, vice pres., and Connie Anderson, sec. and treas.

Coach John Snyder announced that he has picked the grade school basketball teams. Four of the first five are from the eighth grade. They are Tony Upton, Tom Driscoll, Bill Irby, and Gary Huit. The other member of the starting five is Tom Green, who is in the seventh grade.

The second five are Sam Green, Rodney Flug, Mickey Van Schoelack, Clifford Green and Tom Howell.

The boys first game will be Dec. 14, with Pilot Rock. The game will be played here. The next game will be with Lone, on December 23.

The coach reported that 23 boys turned out for basketball this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson and sons John and Jimmy spent the weekend in Portland.

New books added to the public library are: Story of Scotland Yard, Thompson; The Secret of the Old Salem Desk, Halloy; The Lark Shall Sing, Cadell; Inside Africa, Gunther; Retrial of Joan of Arc, Pernoud; Six Plays by Rodgers and Hammerstein; Isaac Newton, Sootin; Three Loves Has Sandy, Walden; Full Fury, Archibald.
