Monument News

Ansil Martin has been digging a septic tank for the grange hall. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kelly returned home Saturday from Portland where they spent the week with two of their sons while they received medical aid.

Mrs. Joe Mellor kept the Kelly children who were in school while their parents were in Portland.

The M. M. M. club met at the Grange hall Thursday noon for their Christmas meeting. A large table was spread with nearly everything anyone could wish to eat from fried chicken to cake. Afterwards a business meeting was held and everyone exchanged gifts. They also fixed a box of gifts to be sent to the Pendleton state hospital and included a check which will be used to buy candy for the patients. Checks were also made out for the school and both churches as club projects. The next meeting will be January 5 at the home of Mrs. Fred McWillis.

Doris Kingman and Jessie Matteson were in John Day Wednesday on business.

The American Legion and Auxiliary held their Christmas party Saturday night at the grange hall. Santa came passing out bags of candy and nuts for all the children and gifts to everyone there. Carols were played and refreshments followed.

The Saint Ann's Catholic church held its Christmas party Sunday evening at the grange hall. A poultice supper was enjoyed and Santa brought gifts to the kiddies.

Martha Matteson and Doris Kingman visited at the Settie home and at Betty Warus Thursday. Tony Warus came home with Doris for a visit.
