The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white nylon tulle with lace inserts over white satin fashioned with fitted bodice and long sleeves. The full skirt extended into a train. Her veil was in fingertip length. She carried a white orchid with pink center, and a white Bible, a gift of the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Lulu Stevens, Portland.

Candlelighters were Claudia Stevenson and Mary Persinger, Portland.

Mrs. Leo Janes, Jr., sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a gown of pink tulle in ballerina length. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Miss Florence McFarlane and Miss Betty Robertson, Portland, were bridesmaids and wore blue tulle gowns in ballerina length. They carried bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the groom's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stevens, in Vancouver, Wash. The three-tiered cake, decorated with pink roses, and topped with a pink bell ornament, was cut by Mrs. Darrel Rash, sister of the groom. She was assisted in serving by Janet Adrian, Canby, cousin of the groom. The two bridesmaids served the punch and coffee. The matron of honor helped the bride open the gifts.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Janes wore a red dress with black accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a powder blue lace dress with navy blue accessories. Mrs. Lulu Stevens, grandmother of the groom, wore a blue crepe dress. All three had orchid corsages.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Boardman high school. After a trip to Longview, Wash., they are living at 2503 N. W. 25th and Raleigh streets, in Portland.

It was the night before Christmas, and all through the bank, the tellers were asking just whom they should thank, for making their year one of pleasure and joy, while meeting and greeting each man, girl or boy.

When out in the lobby, loan officers came... and typists and clerks, their question the same. From offices, vaults, and from every compartment... bookkeepers, guards... and the whole trust department.

In seventy-one branches the managers knew, that they had a message to carry to you. And so they all sang in tones loud and clear, "Merry Christmas to all... and a Happy New Year!"

Or, to put it another way, the people of the 71 statewide banking offices of The First National Bank of Portland wish you and yours a very merry Christmas and a happy, prosperous New Year!
