Anna Carroll Marries Harold Ray Marlow in Rites At Boardman

By Mary Lee Malow
Miss Anna Geraldine Carroll, La Grande, and Harold Ray Marlow, Boardman, were united in marriage in a candlelight ceremony Dec. 3 at the Boardman Community church. The bride is the daughter of Warren E. Carroll of La Grande, and Mrs. Charles M. Smith, Spenard, Alaska, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marlow of Boardman. The Rev. A. E. Davis, pastor of the Methodist church of Hermiston, performed the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Thurman Johnson sang "Because" and "Wedding Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. Harold Baker, who also played the wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her grandfather, J. H. Dockweiler of La Grande, was lovely in a waltz length gown of white brocaded satin, fashioned in the princess style, with square neckline, and the bodice trimmed in rhinestones. Her finger tip veil was held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a nosegay of white carnations.

Something old was her pearls, something new her gown. For something borrowed she wore pearl earrings loaned to her by Mrs. Nathan Thorpe. And she wore the traditional blue garter. She had a penny in her shoe which was minted the year of her birth.

Miss LaJeanne Franklin, La Grande, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore a waltz length gown of blue crystaletta, and carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

Darrell Marlow, twin brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Douglas Califf, Hermiston, and Robert Smith, Boardman. They also were the candlelighters.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the basement of the church. The five-tiered wedding cake, topped by bridal figurines centered the lace covered table. After the first traditional piece was cut by the couple it was cut and served by Mrs. Ed Kunze, Boardman, assisted by Mrs. Dannie Ransier, of Stanfield. Mrs. J. H. Dockweiler, La Grande, grandmother of the bride, poured the coffee, and Mrs. Paul Smith, Union, served the punch. In charge of gifts were Mrs. Nathan Thorpe, and Mrs. Roy Thurman, Pendleton. Mrs. Roy Marlow, Umatilla, aunt of the groom, was in charge of the reception were Mrs. Elvin Ely, Mrs. Claud Coats, Mrs. I. T. Pearson and Mrs. Charles Anderreg.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Smith wore a brown wool suit with black hat and accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of black crepe and taffeta, with white hat and accessories. Both had corsages of pink carnations.

For going away the bride wore a blue crystaletta dress with yellow nylon topper, and black velvet hat and accessories.

The bride formerly attended school in Boardman and La Grande, and also attended in Spenard, Alaska two years. The groom is a graduate of Boardman high school and spent two years in the armed services, receiving his discharge last March. The couple are living in Hermiston at 260 Hi-Land Apts.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mrs. William Thurman and Mrs. Harry Shipp, aunts of the groom; Roy Thurman and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Ransier, cousins of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Emsley Rogers and Stanley Shattuck, all of Pendleton; Mrs. Virgil Locker, Stanfield; Mr. and

Boardman Man Married Recently In St. Helens Ceremony

By Mary Lee Marlow

Miss Barbara Carol Eades, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon C. Wright of St. Helens, became the bride of Emsley Emmett Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Rogers of Boardman, in a double ring ceremony recently at the St. Helens Christian church. The candlelight service was performed by the Rev. Ralph Putnam before an altar decorated with baskets of white chrysanthemums. Yellow chrysanthemums with white satin ribbons and bells decorated the pews. The color scheme of yellow chrysanthemums and white was used throughout the rest of the church and reception hall.

Mrs. James Merrill sang "I Love Thee, Dear" and "The Wedding Prayer", accompanied by Mrs. A. T. Brownlow, who also played the wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white brocaded faille taffeta with long pointed sleeves, high waistline, scalloped neckline and floor length skirt ending in a cathedral train. Her finger tip length veil was held in place with a small pill box hat of the same material. Both gown and veil were made by the bride. She carried a bouquet of red American Beauty rosebuds and white carnations on a white Bible.

Candlelighters were James Wright, brother of the bride, and Albert Rogers, brother of the groom.

Miss Nell Hinzmann, Portland, was maid of honor, and wore a waltz length gown of winter toast faille. She carried a nosegay of bronze chrysanthemums.

Duane Brown, Boardman, was best man, and ushers were Hollis Ranson of Cottage Grove, and Arthur Middleton of Eugene.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the hall of the church. The wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Richardson Wilbanks of Corvallis, assisted Mrs. Fred Erickson of Blalock, cousin of the groom. Pouring were Miss Audrey Arrington of Monmouth, and Mrs. Russell Erickson of Blalock, cousin of the groom.

Mrs. Loyal Conard of Columbia City, and Miss Phyllis Houglund and Miss Joyce Bond of St. Helens were in charge of the gift table. Miss Carole Beech of Eugene had charge of the guest book.

Most of the people assisting with the wedding were college friends of the couple.

The bride is a graduate of the St. Helens high school and attended Oregon State college at Corvallis. The groom is a graduate of Boardman high school and University of Oregon at Eugene.

Following a trip to the Oregon beaches and Eugene and Corvallis to visit college friends the couple will live in Pendleton for a short time, after which the groom will enter the U. S. Airforce.

Attending the wedding from Boardman were the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Eades and son Larry.

Invest in Dependability... get a Bonus in Go!

You can buy it on its name alone—this big, high-powered '56 Pontiac—and be safe in the knowledge that you couldn't have made a better investment in years of dependable, carefree motoring.

The good things you've been hearing about Pontiac for years assure you that.

But "go" is the word for '56! Performance so new and dramatic it must be experienced to be believed!

A short spell behind the wheel will nail that statement down as a fact. Come along for a drive and see.

Waiting for the light to change, you can't hear the engine. But touch your toe to the accelerator and in a split second there's a torrent of power, sparked by the most advanced engine of them all—the blazing 227-h.p. Strato-Streak V-8.

Team this terrific power plant with Pontiac's all-new Strato-Flight Hydra-Matic* and you've got the smoothest take-off that ever brightened a highway.

And remember—this easy handling dream is actually among the biggest, huskiest cars built!

Now for the final test—head for the open road and some landmarks you can challenge. Wipe out a hill. Straighten a curve. Smooth out a stretch of rough road that's bothered you for years.

Now see why they're calling this the greatest "go" on wheels?

More than that—it's the greatest buy on wheels! And that too, is easy to prove.

Then take a look at the price tag—a check on our deal.

Nothing will stop this powerful beauty from being yours!

*An extra-cost option.

You can actually have a big, glamorous Pontiac 860 for less than you would pay for 44 models of the low-priced three!
