WHAT'S DOING

D. A. Short, your Telephone Manager for Heppner

"Shut-ins" go to school by telephone

For many ill or handicapped children facing long confinement at home, there's a new interest in life these days. Thanks to coast-to-home telephone service, they can now "attend" classes regularly. A speaker-microphone is put in the classroom and then in the home. They're connected by a private telephone line. The student at home hears everything his teacher and classmates say, and they hear him. As one youngster says: "Before, I did my lessons at home and that was that. Now something happens every day." The men and women of Pacific Telephone work to make your telephone more useful every day.

How beauty and convenience for your home with color telephones

Wouldn't you like to have extension telephones in beautiful colors in your home? Well, it's a simple matter to order yours. Just call your telephone business office. You have a choice of eight full colors—red, ivory, brown, green, blue, beige, yellow, or gray—and two-tone combinations. With color telephones in your living room, bedroom, kitchen, and any other room you use a lot, you'll enjoy new ease of living. Cost: for a single installation charge, you pay only $1.25 a month each extension. So why not call us today.

You can call coast-to-coast for only $2.00

It's right! You can call all way across the country a right here in town to, say, for only $2.00 plus tax. It's typical of how little it costs to call station-to-station. It takes only three minutes to talk for three minutes or 6 o'clock any evening and any day Sunday. Why not look in front of your telephone directory now and see how easy it costs to call those who are the sound of your voice. Pacific Telephone.

Heppner High School SCOOP

March of Dimes Drive Aided

By Alice Peterson
Heppner high school was really "on the beam" for the March of Dimes contest, held last week. Altogether they collected $363.50. The sophomores and seniors really made the contest exciting. The seniors organized the L. F. S. (Lynch for Seniors) club, which had two candy sales, and were ahead until Friday noon, when the sophomores held an auction downtown. They auctioned two pigs donated by Ralph Beamer. This put them about $80 in the lead, so the seniors dug into their class fund and produced a $100 dollar bill.

The money was presented to Floyd Sayers, county chairman, at an assembly Friday afternoon. The high school wishes to thank the townspeople and students who contributed funds and did work for this worthy cause.

Nona Sowell, secretary and clerk for school district No. 1, has resigned her position effective Jan. 31. Mrs. Sowell has been offered a better position, and Mrs. Sowell said, "even though I will miss contact with the teachers and students, I feel that I can't pass up such an opportunity." The faculty presented her with a gift, Monday, Jan. 23.

Mr. Popham has been tutoring Barbara Warren for 1 hour each day so that she can get enough credits to graduate. She also has an inter-communication system, connecting the hospital with the classroom, so she can listen to the class. Barbara was injured in an automobile accident December 30.

The Future Homemakers of America have elected new officers, and they will be installed Feb. 8 before the Parent Teachers Association.

The Quill and Scroll held a dutch auction between the A and B games with Echo, Saturday, Jan. 21. James Monahan was the auctioneer. Earl Wilkinson baked two cakes, which were auctioned and $28.76 was made.

The Quill and Scroll would like to thank everyone who helped them, and donated money to them.

Stanley Holm has been driving to Pendleton every Monday to take an educational course in psychology. Both Mr. Holm and Bob Hare have been taking geology courses in Arlington.

Books added to the public library are: The Long Way Around, Carlson; West Young Man, Jones; Long Rope, Kieley; The Gabriel Horn, Holt; The Little Cow and the Turtle, DeJong; How Do You Travel, Schlein.

Stage manager James Laney and assistant to the director, Mike Patrick, Gerry Messenger, Lee Cornilison; advertising, Laddie Henderson and Hank Pointer; business manager, Karl Beach and Barbara Steagall; costumes, Cherry Grey; dressing, Nancy Wright; makeup, Joan Patrick; properties, Vern Nolan and Keith Peck; electricians, Larry Henderson and Paul Breeding; sound technician, Dora Sue Davidson and director Nola Coval. Following the play the play cast presented Mrs. Coval with a fine gift. Also a party of the high school and cast followed the play.

Mr. and Mrs. Serge Coval and daughters have moved into the Don Campbell house.

Mrs. Don Hatfield has been confined to her home the last week on account of illness.

Mrs. Bill J. Van Winkle has been cooking at the school cafeteria the last week, due to the illness of Mrs. Gladys Young. Mrs. Van Winkle is the assistant cook.

The Thespians met at the home of the president, Mrs. Cecil Jones on Friday where a potluck dinner was enjoyed with a good practice following. The date for the play given by this group is Feb. 17th at the school auditorium. The name of this play is "Hessie of Hills" a hill-billy play. The proceeds of this one will go to the Cub Scouts and the building fund of the Lexington Christian church, to be used for a floor to be put in the main auditorium. The following people are taking parts, Mr. and Mrs. George Irvin, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Angell, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones, Mrs. June Cooper, Mrs. O. W. Cutsforth, Miss Pat Majeska, Bill Nichols and W. E. McMillan.

The business meeting of the Lexington Christian church and Sunday school was held Thursday evening in the church. At this time the meeting of the Sunday school was first, with little new business. Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt and Mrs. Karl Marquardt resigned as cradle roll officers and Mrs. C. C. Jones and Mrs. Norman Northrup were volunteers for the position. Also at this meeting Mrs. Marquardt resigned as pianist for Sunday school and church. Next was the business meeting of the church.

quardt, Betty Marquardt, Merle Price, Mayo Hughes, Alta Messenger, Lucille Peck, Marjorie Campbell, Fay Munkers, Beverley Miles, Delpha Jones, Florence McMillan, and associate deaconesses, Mrs. Irene Nolan and Mrs. Cora Allyn. Jan. 29th at 7:30 there will be candlelight installation service for these new officers. This is the first time a service like this has been held in the Lexington church and the public is urged to attend. It was also announced at this time that (Continued on page 6)
