

Mercury Drops to -6 At Boardman

By Mary Lee Marlow
The temperature dropped to six below zero here Monday night, with some farmers reporting as low as nine and ten below. Minimum Monday was 24 above. Many people were kept busy during the night thawing out frozen fuel oil lines. There are about five inches of snow on the ground which fell last Thursday and again Sunday.

The annual congregational and corporational meeting of the Boardman Community church was held Sunday afternoon at the church. The Rev. Robert Huff, pastor of the Umatilla Presbyterian church was moderator, and conducted communion services before the meeting. Two trustees were elected to the board for a term of three years, replacing Robert Miller and Willard Baker, whose terms expire. The new trustees are Max Vannoy and Seth Russell. Mrs. Florence Root was reelected church treasurer. Following the morning services a potluck dinner was held at noon in the church basement.

Members of Greenfield grange held a social Saturday night at the hall, with about 40 attending. An oyster stew supper was served at 6:30 p. m. and the evening was spent playing bingo. Hosts were the grange social committee, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. William Garner and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Mills. Mrs. Paul Smith, Union, was a guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hamilton and daughter Lorelei, and Larry Thorpe went to Portland Sunday to attend the services at Providence hospital at which Carol Hamilton received her cap as a student nurse.

Ed Kunze returned home from Portland Sunday after spending two weeks there at the home of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr.

and Mrs. Ed McClellan, Sr. Mr. and Mrs. Kunze were entertained at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Flack Sunday, in honor of their 38th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Tannehill and three children, La Grande, were weekend visitors at the home of Tannehill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Tannehill. Lawrence Smith, Anchorage, Alaska, and Mrs. Paul Smith, of Union, were weekend visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Black and Sidney Cloud attended an FFA banquet at Hermiston on Thursday night of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Newell Vaught, Richland, Wash., visited at the home of Mrs. Vaught's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Ely, Sunday.

Ronald Black, high school FFA instructor, took seven members of his class to Pendleton Saturday for the Blue Mountain district Parliamentary contest. In the group were Bill Thorpe, Bill Coder, Martin Shattuck, Gerald Anderson and Jerry Peck. Alternates were Sidney Cloud and Ivan Kress.

Due to the extreme cold, Mrs. Velma Glass, county health nurse, Heppner, was unable to come to the Boardman school on Monday to give the patch test for tuberculosis. It will be given at a future date, which will be announced later.

Attendance pins were presented to 18 pupils of the Sunday school at Boardman Community church Sunday morning. Those receiving six months pins were Dayle Rae and Mark Vannoy, Larry West and Mrs. Lee Harwood; one year pins, Mrs. Max Vannoy, Cheryl and Lynn Vannoy; two years, Bobbie Taylor and Miss Zelma Cowan; three years, Toni Taylor, Mrs. Margaret Klitz and Mrs. Louise Earwood; four years, Miss Jean Scott; five years, Mrs. Armin Hug; six years, Jim and Patty Miller; eight years, Wanda Hug; nine years, Irene Potts; ten years, Marie Potts. Mrs. Hug and Jim and Patty Miller were given a gift for completing five years attendance.

The Tillicum club met on Tuesday night, Jan. 24, at the home of Mrs. Gunnar Skoubo, with nine members present. Mrs. Bob Stewart was a guest. Names were drawn for next year's Carnation sister. The club will hold its annual

Heppner High School SCOOP

By Nancy Anderson
Class elections Jan. 27 brought forth these new leaders: senior class—president, James Monahan; vice-president, Del Piper; secretary, Edith Morris; treasurer, Sharon Bryant; and sgt.-at-arms Eddie Brosnan.

Heading the junior class are Jesse Smallwood, president; Jay Sumner, vice-president; Alice Peterson, secretary; Evonne Esch, treasurer; Jay Dee Hudson, sgt.-at-arms; and Shirley Kononen, student council representative.

Sophomores again chose Burke Gentry as their proxy. Other officers are vice-president, Jim Morris; secretary, Joann Brosnan; treasurer, Tom Currin; sgt.-at-arms, Len Ray Schwarz; and student council representative, Peggy Applegate.

President Renn Harris will lead the Frosh for the rest of the year. His associates are vice-president, Dick Ruhl; secretary, Nancy Slocum; treasurer, Marilyn Calvin; and student council representative, Carolyn McDaniel.

A foodsale at Red and White Saturday netted the junior class $20 to add to prom revenue. The prom is scheduled for May 11.

Orville Cutsforth entertained Heppner students Jan. 30 with pictures he had taken on his world tour. Slides were shown of the Holy Lands, Japan, India, Europe, and other places visited.

Honor Roll Listed
Thirteen students received semester grades of 3.75 or better making them eligible for the honor roll. Every class except the Freshmen had one 4. student.

Seniors receiving honors were: Nancy Anderson, Lynda Borman, James Monahan, and Karen Prock. Juniors: Jay Sumner, Janet Wright, Shirley Kononen, Mary Stewart. Sophomores: Joann Brosnan, Judy Collins, and Tom Currin. Freshmen: Janice Martin, and Renn Harris.

Twenty-six students received 3.0 or better to make the low honor roll. They are: Sharon Bryant, Shirley Palmer, Bob Hare, Edith Morris, Wayne Soward, Bob Stevens, Lance Tibbles, Lowell Turner, and Skip Ruhl. Seniors, Laura Allstott, Francine Francis, Alice Peterson, Jesse Smallwood, Alice Stewart, and Meredith Thomson, Juniors, Peggy Applegate, Jan Beamer, Helen Graham, Jim Morris and Phyllis Quackenbush, Sophomores, Steven Flug, Bob Huffman, Carolyn McDaniel, and Susan McQuarrie, Freshmen.

A special school board meeting was held Jan. 30 for the purpose of working on the school budget and going over final checking of the new school with Simonton and Steel Contractors.

The board also discussed the remodeling of the high school building which will be started this year and continued, taking in the home-ec department, lunchroom, kitchen, library, science rooms, and commercial departments.

A recreation room will be opened in the old building for the seventh and eighth grades sometime during the coming week. The students will operate the room themselves and facilities for table games and dancing are being provided.

Two more victories have been added to the HGS basketball teams score book, since they soundly whipped both the A and B strings of Ione last Friday afternoon. The A score was 35-28 and Tom Driscoll led the scoring with 13 points. Gary Huit and Bill Irby tied for second with 8 points, each.

The B games total was 27-8 and Stuart Gribble and Bob Nichols each racked up 5 points apiece, tying for high point man.

The Pilot Rock gym will be the scene of the HGS teams next game. It will be Friday afternoon.

Tom Driscoll's team is leading the intramural tournament in the seventh and eighth grade division, and Marion Biddle's is ahead in the fourth, fifth and sixth grade bracket.

In the girls' intramural tournaments, both Libby Van Scholack's and Geraldine Swaggart's team have been the winners so far. Several games are scheduled to be played in the near future though, so the winners are not definitely decided yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Terrell Bengel returned Sunday from Portland where Bengel has been hospitalized for the past three weeks.
