Many From Ione Attend Wedding In Salem Saturday

By Echo Palmateer
Miss Beverly McMillan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmo McMillan of Salem and granddaughter of Mrs. Mary Swanson of Ione, became the bride of William Donald Ramsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ramsey of Silverton, Saturday, February 4 in the fireplace room of the Knight Memorial church in Salem, with Rev. Louis White officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white dress of Chantilly lace over satin with a three tiered waltz length skirt and a short jacket with long sleeves. A crown of net and pearls held her finger tip veil of nylon tulle. She carried a bouquet of bouvardia centered with garnet rosebuds.

Miss Susan Dick of Portland was bridesmaid. She wore a ruby crystal dress with short bolero jacket and carried a bouquet of Delight rosebuds with silver leaves.

John W. Longmier of Portland was best man and Dennis Swanson of Portland, cousin of the bride, was usher.

The bride's mother wore a pink lace dress over satin, with maroon accessories. The groom's mother wore an ice green dress with black accessories. They each wore a corsage of garnet rosebuds.

The room was decorated with white flowers and garnet roses, with silver leaves.

A reception followed in the McMillan home. Mrs. Garland Swanson, Ione poured; Mrs. Norman Swanson, Portland, cut the cake and Miss Joan McMillan and Miss Jean Ann Swanson had charge of the guest book and the gifts.

Others assisting about the rooms were Mrs. John McMillan, Mrs. Adon Hamlett and Mrs. C. T. Ritchie.

For going away the bride chose a suit of powder blue with black and white accessories. After a trip to California the couple will be at home in Portland.

Those attending the wedding from Ione were Mrs. Mary Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. Odon Hamlett and children, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson and daughter Jean Ann.
