Pep Assembly
At our recent pep assemblys we have had very good numbers from the pep band under Mr. Stephenson. There has been much cooperation from those boys asked to give talks and also from the teachers. The grade school help immensely at our pep assembly. New songs and yells have been added.

There were talks of having the desire to play ball and also to have faith in yourself which everyone thought was interesting.

Car Trouble
Lone boys have had bad luck with cars. Loy Keene tore out an axle, and Keith Rea tore out a transmission. Go easy and take good care of those cars or we girls will have to stay at home.

New Uniforms
The lone town team has new black uniforms with a red and white stripe down the side. They are real sharp looking and we feel they deserve them. They have won sixteen games and lost two. The student body wish you luck, townies!

Speech Festival Play
Try-outs were held for the speech festival play and the cast was announced yesterday. It is as follows: Henry—Keith Jones; Henry's mother—Mardine Baker; Miss Henderson, a teacher—Judy Mason; Slug, a crook—Gary White; Dapper, another crook—Wayne Ball.

The title of the play is the "Seventh Age" and under the direction of Gary Stephenson. Practice has already begun.

2nd and 3rd Grade News
We have full attendance (26) again after everyone is back from having the mumps and the chicken pox.

Trova Rigby is back this afternoon. Bobby Lee DeSpain is absent because of a hoarse throat.

The children are happy to be able to play outside again after the cold weather.

The children have made a Valentine box and they have made many Valentines to give to classmates and friends. They will have a short Valentine party on Valentine day.

Lone Dumps Heppner
Lone and Heppner met on the lone court Sat. Feb. 11, with Heppner getting a quick start in the first quarter, scoring 14 points to Lone's 6. In the second quarter Lone gave Heppner a good fight, outscoring the visitors 13-11 but could not overcome a six point lead built up by Heppner. Halftime score was 25-19.

Lone came out strong the second half and in the third quarter out-scored the visitors. With Ernie Drake and Bob Pryse and Lindsey Kincaid working the boards, Lone did a wonderful job of holding Heppner to five points. When the third quarter ended, Lone was out in front 33-30.

In the fourth quarter the Mustangs came out strong, but not strong enough to over-power the (Continued on page 6)
