History of Lex P-TA Told at Meet

By Delpha Jones

The Lexington P-TA held its regular meeting on Tuesday night with the president Mrs. M. V. Nolan in the chair. After the regular line of business the meeting was turned over to Mrs. O. W. Cutsforth the program chairman. Group singing was enjoyed, led by Mrs. Alonzo Henderson, accompanied by Miss Jewell Boone at the piano. The history and traditions of Valentine's day and a poem was given by Mrs. Mary Ann Barclay. Jack Angel of the Pioneer Memorial hospital gave a most interesting talk on Red Cross. Two short skits from the play "Hessie of the Hills" was given with the following people taking part, Jim Angell, Jo Irvin, George Irvin, and Delpha and Cecil Jones.

History of the Lexington P-TA prepared by Mrs. Gar Leyva was given by Mrs. C. C. Jones. Part of this was an interesting letter from Mrs. Lorena Miller of Portland, a past president of both the Lexington P-TA and the Highland P-TA of Portland. In this letter she brought to mind the beginning of the hot lunch program in Lexington, as well as the fact that Lexington was the first chartered P-TA in Morrow county getting its beginning under the leadership of Mrs. Harry Schriever, in 1929. Other presidents mentioned were: Mrs. A. M. Edwards, Mrs. Charles A. Marquardt, Mrs. Lena Kelly, Mrs. William Smethurst, Mrs. A. F. Majeske, Mrs. W. E. McMillan, Mrs. Miller herself and Mrs. Merle Miller. It was brought out that the P-TA was again organized in 1946 with the following people serving as presidents: Mrs. Clarence Hayes, Mrs. C. C. Jones, Mrs. Laverne Henderson, Mr. Gerald Baker, Mrs. Wilma Wallace, Mrs. Bob Davidson, Mrs. B. J. Doherty, Mrs. Mel Bates and the present president, Mrs. M. V. Nolan. Pictures were taken at this time for the year book and valentines were presented the past presidents. Mrs. Staggs, the state president of the P-TA gave a most interesting talk on the white house conference and the P-TA scholarships. The high school students were invited to sit in on the scholarship talks. Mrs. skaggs whose home is in Milton-Freewater was accompanied here by Mrs. D. E. Isom.

It was brought out at this meeting that Lexington P-TA feels fortunate in having had two very important persons as speakers in the past years. Mrs. William Kietzer who was Oregon mother of the year in 1955 and Mrs. Henry Roe Cloud who was mother of the year and national mother of the year.

Later refreshments were served in the cafeteria by the hospitality committee, Mrs. Pine Thornburg, Mrs. Bob Davidson, Mrs. Theron Adlard, Mrs. Eugene Wardwell and Mrs. Jim Angell. The tables were decorated with the valentine motif and the cake was a beautifully decorated creation of three layers with the bottom layers meaning the National P-TA the second layer the state and the third one the local.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Pearson and son and Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Breeding were Hermiston visitors on Saturday. Upon return they were all guests in Lexington of Mr. and Mrs. George Steagall.

Mrs. Dean Hunt, Mrs. John Ledbetter, Mrs. Iris Campbell and Mrs. Bob Davidson were hostesses to a bridal shower honoring Mrs. Charlie Padberg, at the Hunt home on Tuesday afternoon. A most enjoyable time was had and after the honoree opened her many gifts, refreshments were served to the following: Mrs. O. G. Breeding, Mrs. Annetta Klingler, Mrs. Irene Padberg, Mrs. Delores Wilson, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Eileen Padberg, Mrs. Gladys Van Winkle, Mrs. Bertha Hunt, Mrs. Oris Padberg, Mrs. Nola Coval, Mrs. Marie Steagall, Mrs. Lavonne Bloodworth, Mrs. W. E. McMullan, and Mrs. Eugene Sawyer. Also attending were all the high school girls.

Guests on Sunday at the C. C. Jones home were Mr. and Mrs. Don Miller and daughter Della of Hermiston, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Miller and son Gary of La Grande, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Miller of North Powder and Mrs. Evelyn Groves of North Platte, Nebraska. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Livingston of Spray were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Breeding.

Mr. and Mrs. George Allyn had as their guests a niece and nephew of Ukiah.

Lola Breeding and JoAnn Smith were hostesses to a birthday party honoring Linda Coval at the Breeding home last week. Those present were: Mrs. George Steagall and children Brenda, Vickie, and George and Tammie and Ann Coval.

Earl Warner is spending some time at the Ritter Hot Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barak and three children have returned home after the winter spent in Texas. Paula a daughter has again enrolled in the 8th grade. Mrs. Don Hatfield and daughter and son are visiting in Lebanon at the home of Mr. Hatfield's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hatfield have been at the Hatfield home for several days with the two Mrs. Hatfields being taken to Lebanon by Don with the father remaining here for some time.

Cub Scout den meetings were held at the respective homes of the den mothers on Monday night. Much work was done on the table decorations and place cards for the banquet to be given at the I. O. O. F. hall on Feb. 29.

Miss Donna Cutsforth, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Cutsforth has returned to her home after a few days in Pioneer Memorial hospital.

Sunday was Boy Scout Sunday at which time Norman Northrup minister of the Christian church preached a fine sermon honoring these boys, their parents and the people associated with the scout movement. There were a large crowd of scouts present with their parents for this service.

The teachers of the Lexington Christian and Congregational Sunday schools are busy getting plans made for Easter Sunday which is April 1 of this year. Mrs. George Irvin and Mrs. Omer Laney and Mrs. Alonzo Henderson are some of the new teachers helping in the primary department of the Sunday school. There are classes for all ages and all are invited to come and fellowship with these groups.

Why hold back from the fun and thrill and pride of bossing a Buick—when you can boss such a big and strapping beauty for the price of a smaller car?

Hard to believe? Listen...

If you can afford any new car, you can afford this brawny Buick SPECIAL Sedan—for a very simple reason.

This Buick is priced within a few dollars of the well-known smaller cars—and actually costs less than some models of those very same cars. (The price we show here proves that.)

Want more proof? For two years in a row now, Buick has outsold every other car in America except two of those well-known smaller cars. And you can bet your bottom dollar that it takes bedrock prices to stay in the Top 3 of the nation's best sellers.

But even that isn't the whole story—not by a long shot.

Folks are buying Buicks in record numbers because they find in these big beauties a lot more automobile for the money.

They find here more styling freshness and distinction—more snap and ginger and power thrill—more comfort and luxury—more ride stability and steadiness—and more structural solidity and pure automobile than the same money buys elsewhere.

So if you want to move into the big-car travel world at a small-car price—if you want to have the time of your motoring life with the lift and lilt and pride and prestige of a beautiful new Buick as your very own—what's holding you back?

Drop in on us right quick—tomorrow, maybe?—and we'll show you the biggest bundle of high-powered Buick ever offered in America's low-price field.
