SCHOOL

Ione Nips Irrigon
 Ione just about turned victory into defeat last Thursday night, but got by Irrigon 61-59. Ione led by as much as 16 points at one point in the game, but a rally by Irrigon, led by Joe Mann, narrowed the gap and Irrigon went ahead three points with one and one-half minutes left in the game. Ione's never-die Cardinals quickly put through four points and then ahead by one point. Rea added a free throw for the final margin of victory, 61-59.
 Jim Pryse led Ione with 20 points, but big Joe Mann, scored 53 points out of his team's game total of 59. Preliminary was won by Ione. Wayne Ball scored 30 points.

Ione Walks Over Umatilla
 Ione had a little easier game at Umatilla and were never behind except for a brief time in the first quarter. Ione came out on top, 51-36.

Trip Around the World
 O. W. Cutsforth, from Lexington came down to Ione February 13, and showed slides of all the places he visited. From the slides he showed us, we discovered that the ways of other people are completely different from ours in the U. S.

The people from India believe that everything is sacred except human life and the life of the monkey. They have cows and snakes just walking around in the streets and no one thinks anything about it. The people in India are starving but they would not eat the animals. They believe in worshipping idols. The people of India have temples that are made of gold, but still the people starve.

The people in India live on the east side of the Ganges river because they believe if they are on the west side and die there they will not turn into a sacred animal in the next world. The west side is a beautiful country, and plenty of food could be raised by the people living on that side. The student body of Ione high school would like to thank Mr. Cutsforth for his time. The student body enjoyed this interesting illustrated lecture and also learned a great deal.

Library Notes
 We have received several new library books this week. There are several novels and several fiction. River of Gold, Little League Baseball, Margin of Error, The Red Car, The Plums Hang High, Maugham's choice of Kiplings best, Gone with the Wind.

New Students in Chorus
 The Ione high school chorus has four new students. They are: Alyce Mason, Gary Brenner, and Billie and Mildred Seehafer. The students of Ione feel that the chorus this year has been the best in years, it really sounds terrific, keep up the good work. If Ione and Heppner have exchange assemblies the chorus will sing. They have sung for our assemblies and have done a wonderful job.

Tumbling and Trampoline
 During the half of the Heppner and Ione game, 15 of the Ione high school girls gave a tumbl-
