Student Council Meeting

The student council met Thursday to discuss many problems. Among them was the discussion of a talent show to be held in April. There was a committee picked to get the talent. We also discussed making a handbook for next year. The book would also contain the different activities which would take part throughout the year. The book also would have our school song and yells for our pep section.

Ione Flies By Boardman

The ball game started with all seniors. Ione's quick working team popped in a few quick baskets and led in scoring the rest of the game.

By the half Ione led by a large margin. In the second half the freshman team entered the game. Boardman took advantage of the chance and came within 9 points of catching up. Jim Pryse and Ernie Drake went back into the game for height and brought the score back up to a 13 point lead. When the final horn blew, the score was Ione 70 to Boardman's 57.

E. Drake—21; J. Pryse—10; L. Kincaid—11; B. Pryse—7; K. Rea—12; N. McKay—2; B. Salters—2; A. McCabe—5.

Weather Change Pleases Boardman

By Mary Lee Marlow

A welcome change in the weather has brought the temperature up in the fifties this week. The thermometer was up to 54 above at 9 a. m. Tuesday. There was a slight wind blowing. Minimum at night have been above freezing.

16 people from Boardman attended the dinner and meeting at Arlington Monday night regarding the building of the John Day dam. W. S. Nelson, executive secretary of The Dalles Chamber of Commerce, spoke at the grade school on the problems confronting the communities along the Columbia river if and when the dam is built. Included in the group attending from here were officers of the Commercial club, William Garner, president; Arthur Allen, vice-president; Dewey West, treasurer; Ray Anderson, secretary; Joe Tatone, Boardman mayor; Walter Hayes, member of the city council; and Russell K. Miller, Morrow county commissioner.

The Boardman Garden club held its annual family dinner on Wednesday night of last week at the grange hall. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Brown, Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. Nate Macomber, Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kunze, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe and children Larry, Bill, Jim, Sandra and Theresa, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderegg and daughter Barbara, Mrs. Louise Earwood and daughter Shirley, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. Algy Taylor and children Bobbie and Toni, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Miller and children Jim and Meredith Thomson, Hehisch assistant editor, answering the question, "Why do so many Heppner students take journalism?" Shirley Konoren, Future Business Leader president, and James Monahan attended the Red Cross kick-off breakfast at O'Donnell's Feb. 29. The FBLA will assist the Chamber of Commerce in soliciting for the Red Cross.

Students are starting to write essays to enter in the United Nations contest in the middle of March. The topic this year is again, "My Community and World Affairs."

The National Assemblies programs will bring Fleming Orem with his marimba to Heppner high school March 8 at 8:45 a. m.

An inter-school dance is being planned by the Heppner high school student council. It will be March 16 for Lexington, Ione and Heppner students and faculty members.

PONY KICKS

Clarence Johnson, grade school principal, substituted Friday for Mrs. Blanche Boulden, seventh grade teacher, who was ill. Mrs. Boulden was back on the job on Monday.

Finalists for the grade school speech festival have been announced. The following people will compete in the county contest held at Lexington March 6:

Sandra Jones will be Heppner's entry in the memorized humorous class. Tony Upton will compete for honors in poetry reading. Mary Evelyn Tucker will be the extemporaneous reading entry and Marjorie Peck will recite in the story telling.

An assembly will be held for the upper classes in grade school Thursday so that they may hear the contestants before they go to Lexington.

Friday the basketball squads played Stanfield. They won the A game 36-32 with Tom Driscoll scoring 14 points. Unfortunately, they lost the B game.

Saturday, they soundly whipped both Condons teams. The A, 42-17, with Bill Irby and Tom Driscoll tying for spotlight honors and the B game 35-14. Both Tom and Bill dumped in 13 points.

Coach John Snyder reports baseball will start when the weather permits.
