

Heppner Gazette Times

Heppner, Oregon, Thursday, March 8, 1956

Construction of New Store, Home Started at Ione

By Echo Palmateer

There is much activity going on in Ione. Don Hatfield of Lexington purchased a building from Paul O'Meara on Main street and is planning to open a grocery and dry goods store there about the 29th of March. The building is now being remodeled. Don's father, John E. Hatfield will operate the store.

A. E. Stefani is building a new home on Main street. He has sold his house he now lives in to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bergstrom.

W. E. Melena purchased the old Congregational church building and lot on Main street. The old part of the building was torn down and he gave the lumber to the Community church. The better part of the building was left and is for sale to any one interested in moving it from the lot. The men of the community assisted Wednesday and Thursday of last week in tearing down the old part. Around 15 worked Wednesday and were served dinner at the Milton Morgan home with Mrs. Roland Bergstrom assisting. 19 were served Thursday at the Noel Dobyms home with Mrs. E. M. Baker assisting.

Members of the American Legion worked on the addition to their hall Sunday. The addition consists of a rest room and a store room. Members of the Auxiliary served a potluck dinner at noon for the workers, at the Legion hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Palmer purchased the Salter house and have remodeled it. They will move in it soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson who have lived in the Salter house moved in the Mrs. Jessie Griffin house on Second street.

Fredrick Martin stepped on a nail while helping tear down the old church building and injured his foot.

Special services will be held at the Nazarene church April 4 to 15 by Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Cargill of Colorado Springs, Colo. Mrs. Cargill is gifted in children's work.

The severe wind storm Friday night blew over a tree on the school grounds. The electricity was off in town for an hour.

Mrs. Art Brownlow of Heppner, Rev. and Mrs. Wilfred McKay, Mrs. Monetta Aldrich, Mrs. Stuart Aldrich and Mrs. Ralph Crum from here attended a Nazarene Sunday school meeting in Pasco Thursday, March 1.

Rev. and Mrs. Martin Swinney of Hermiston spent Tuesday of last week with Rev. and Mrs. Wilfred McKay.

Mrs. Robert Hoskins and daughter, Mary Maxine, returned home from the hospital in Heppner last week. Her sister, Mrs. Howard Adams of Portland visited at the Hoskins home for a few days.

Harry Yarnell who has been a patient in the Pioneer Memorial hospital in Heppner for the past three weeks, underwent major surgery Monday.

Mrs. Mabel Cotter visited her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Mason in The Dalles Saturday.

William Schaefer and son of Canby spent last week here while they poured the foundation for the A. E. Stefani house.

The Ione Extension Unit met at the home of Mrs. Earl McKinney Thursday March 1 with Mrs. E. M. Baker as co-hostess. Miss Beverly Bradshaw, county demonstration agent, was the leader on the subject accessories for clothing. There were 21 members present.

4-H clubs have displays in the store windows in keeping of 4-H week March 3 to 10. These will be judged and prizes awarded.

Snowdrops and crocuses are blooming in spite of the cold weather.

Mrs. Mary Swanson and Gary Stevenson were Salem visitors over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Adon Hamlett and children spent the weekend in Portland.

Books added to the public library are: Wonder Tales of Dogs and Cats by Keats; Kit Carson and the Wild Frontier by Moody; Abe Lincoln, Log Cabin to White House by North; Slow Dies the Thunder by Miller; Fun Around the World.

Mildred Seehafer had the cast removed from her arm last week. She broke her elbow about three weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Verner Troedson entertained with a buffet supper Sunday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Lindstrom who have returned from a round the world air tour. Guests were entertained after supper with slides taken during the tour. Present besides Mr. and Mrs. Lindstrom were their sons Arthur and Roy, the Milton Morgans, W. E. Melenas, Alec Lindsays, Sam Crawfords, David Rietmanns, John Krebs, Victor Rietmanns, and James Lindsays.

Miss Shirlee McGreer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Verner Troedson has been elected manager of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority on the University of Oregon campus.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Stefani made a business trip to Portland the first of the week in connection with construction of their new home on First street.

Dates to remember:
March 9—Topic club meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles O'Connor at 2:15 p. m.

March 9—Fun night at the school sponsored by the P.T.A.

March 11—Child Welfare tea at the Legion hall sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary at 2:30 p. m. Every one is welcome to attend.

March 13—Garden club meeting at the home of Mrs. Echo Palmateer in the afternoon.

March 14—Maranatha club meeting at the Omar Rietmann home in the afternoon.

March 14—P.T.A. meeting at 7:30 p. m. at school cafeteria.

March 22—Colored slides on the Holy Land will be shown by Rev. Sconce of Hermiston at the Community church at 7 p. m. He will also have souvenirs on display. The public is welcome.

March 16—H. E. C. of Willows grange at the O. L. Lundell home.

March 18—Willows grange meeting with potluck dinner at noon. Pictures will be shown by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker on their European trip last fall. These will be shown about 3:30 p. m. and he public is invited to see these pictures.

The Eastern Star Social club card party at the Masonic hall Wednesday evening Feb. 29 was a great success. 6 tables of pinochle and 3 of bridge were played. Those receiving prizes were: In pinochle, Gar Levya and Mrs. Leo Crabtree, high; Mr. and Mrs. Roland Bergstrom, low and Louis Buschke, 300 pinochle. In bridge, Rev Alfred Shirley and Mrs. Mabel Cotter, high; Charles O'Connor and Mrs. Alfred Shirley, low and E. R. Lundell, Jack high. Mrs. Arvilla Swanson received the door prize. Refreshments were served afterward.

A social hour was held after the Bunchgrass Rebekah lodge Thursday evening March 1. The hostesses were Mrs. E. R. Lundell, Mrs. Wallace Matthew and Mrs. Echo Palmateer. The birthday party will be held after the meeting March 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Gabbert of Portland spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Matthews. The Gabberts returned recently from a trip to the Hawaiian Islands. They were accompanied there by her mother, Mrs. Grace Eager.

Jeff Walker of Heppner and Clifford Aldrich and Robert Crowell have been cutting down and trimming trees in Ione.

Among those from here who attended the boat show in Portland last week were Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan and son Garry, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lundell, Mr. and Mrs. Earl McKinney and sons and Grace McCabe. While in Portland, Malcolm McKinney had the cast taken off his arm which he broke a few months ago. Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Crawford and daughters and Anna Jepsen were visitors in The Dalles Saturday.

Those from here who attended the District 6 American Legion conference in Heppner Sunday evening were Mrs. John Eubanks, Mrs. Cecil Thorne, and Gene Rietmann. Paul Tews, commander of the Ione Post also attended.

Mrs. Harold Dobyms attended the grange lecturer school in La Grande last week. She is the lecturer of Willows grange and reported a very worthwhile meeting. Mr. Dobyms took her to La Grande and they also visited his daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Schaad.

Mrs. Robert De Spain entertained the bridge club at her home Friday March 2. Prizes went to Mrs. Pete Cannon high; Mrs. Gene Hall 2nd high, and Mrs. Walter Corley, low.

Mrs. Ralph Crum gave a birthday dinner in honor of Mr. Crum Sunday. Others present were his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Crum of Washougal, Wash.

Grant Rigby, shop instructor in the Ione school attended the assembly of the Oregon Education Association as an alternate over the weekend.

Wayne Gollyhorn, who is in the air force stationed at Oak Harbor in Whidbey Island, Wash., spent a ten day leave with his mother, Mrs. Doris Gollyhorn.

Lex Cub Scouts Receive Awards

By Delpha Jones

The Blue and Gold banquet was held in the I. O. O. F. hall on Wednesday evening at 6:30 p. m. Dinner was served to about 95 people. The tables were cleverly decorated with short logs with small hatchets in them and both were surrounded by pine boughs. On the piano was a large hand drawn picture of President Washington in a pine bough. The place cards were small pine logs with the white place cards in the top and a red and blue cardboard hatchet. These were made by the Cub Scouts. The explorer's place cards were beautifully colored butterflies.

Awards were given with George Irvin, institutional representative of the Cubs presented theirs, the Cub Scout master Franklin Miles presented two of his boys, Larry Angell and Bobby Davidson with den chief cords, and Carl Marquardt, Scout master of the explorers presented Laddie Henderson with a den chief cord. Laddie is den chief for his mother, Mrs. Alonzo Henderson, Larry Angell is den chief for Delpha Jones and Bobby Davidson for Marj Angell.

It was announced that the next pack-meeting will be the last Wednesday in March, and there will be some more awards given at this time. The Cub Scouts are sponsored by the Lexington P-TA and the Boy Scouts by the Odd-fellows lodge.

Word was received in Lexington on Saturday morning by Mrs. E. E. McFadden of the death of her father Frank Null at his home in Hermiston. Mr. and Mrs. McFadden are remaining in that city until after the services (Continued on Page Four)

RANCH AERO

AIRPLANE SPRAYING CO.

OWNED AND OPERATED BY

PAUL H. HANSEN

Will be available again this year to offer assistance to the ranchers of this area with their weed spraying problems.

NOW IN 3 PRICE RANGES— THE BIG M Phaeton

Newest, most advanced design in 4-door hardtops. Available in Montclair, Monterey, or Custom series.

THE NEW MONTCLAIR AND MONTEREY PHAETONS—No center pillars, of course. But more important, no view-cramping curve of the roof—only the whole wide world to see.

Now there's a Phaeton to fit almost any new car budget. And whichever model you choose, you get the advantages of greater visibility for all passengers—plus easier entrance and exit, and exclusive styling touches which distinguish the Phaetons from all other 4-door hardtops. We invite you to see America's most beautiful fleet of 4-door hardtops at our showroom today.

Newest reasons why the big move is to

THE BIG MERCURY

Be sure to see the big television hit, "THE ED SULLIVAN SHOW", Sunday evening, 8:00 to 9:00, Station KEPR-TV, Channel 19.

ROSEWALL MOTOR COMPANY

Notice to Our Customers - -

EFFECTIVE MONDAY, MARCH 12

The Prices of Some Types of Cleaning Will Be INCREASED 10 %

Due to continually increasing costs the Heppner Cleaners are forced to announce an increase of approximately 10 percent in the charges to be made for certain types of cleaning. This is the first increase we have taken since August, 1950 and even with these raises our rates will be equal with or below those charged in surrounding communities.

Starting Monday the charge for cleaning and pressing plain dresses and suits will be $1.65 and some other adjustments will be made in a few categories. We will however, hold the present rate for household items and sweaters.

It is our desire to offer you the finest possible cleaning service, and to be able to do so we must announce this small increase in charges.

For The Fastest, Most Dependable Cleaning Service

CALL 6-9441

Heppner Cleaners

DON'T FORGET!

Make ready your donation for The neighbors who strive,—With time & work, to support The Annual Red Cross Drive!

So many terrible disasters Struck the past year! We're fortunate to have been Spared tragedy here!

So, count all your blessings! Then prepare to offer—All you can spare, to help The others who suffer!

Support Your Red Cross Chapter

For All Your Insurance Needs

C. A. RUGGLES

Heppner, Oregon
Phone 6-9625 Box 611