LEGION AND AUXILIARY DISTRICT CONFERENCE HELD IN HEPPNER

American Legion Post No. 87 and its Auxiliary of Heppner were hosts for the District 6 American Legion conference held on March 4, at the Legion hall. Open house was held from 5:00 to 6:00 followed by dinner at 6:30.

Harlan McCurdy, Jr. acted as master of ceremonies and introduced Mrs. Mary Van Stevens, the mayor of Heppner who made a brief welcoming speech.

Department Commander of Oregon, Jack Larson, of Springfield spoke on the 4 point program of the Legion. He emphasized the child welfare and the veteran's rehabilitation programs, and urged all posts to support the "Back to God movement" in their respective areas.

Mrs. Harold Leach, Department president of the auxiliary from Bonneville spoke briefly on the auxiliary program.

Visiting state and district officers were then introduced; they included department adjutant Joe McDonald and Mrs. McDonald from Coos Bay; Fred Thompson, rehabilitation chairman from Portland; Mrs. Clarence Grund, 1st vice president, of Monmouth; Mrs. P. L. Thornton, secretary of Portland; Mrs. Vernon Kennedy, Department community chairman from Pendleton; District commander, Bob Burlingame and Mrs. Burlingame from Milton-

Freewater; District Auxiliary president, Mrs. Dorothy Smith and Mr. Smith of Hermiston; and District vice-commander Forrest Thornburg and Mrs. Thornburg of Lexington.

All seven posts of the legion and auxiliary of district 6 were well represented. Mission, an all Indian post and unit received the award from the District vice-commander for the best attendance.

The primary reason for the district conferences is to create an enthusiasm in promoting the Legion and Auxiliary service program.

To accomplish the aims and purposes, the interest and activity of every member and the strength of new members who will dedicate themselves in service to God and Country is needed.
