TALENT SHOW

The talent show was opened by the master of ceremonies, Bob Pryse. The theme was a night club in a large city. The inside of the club had a big sign stating "Club 700". All the talent that took part was local.

The scene was opened by the dance band playing "Blue Moon" as their theme song. The program consisted of:

Linda Halvorsen singing "It Is No Secret" and "The Bible Tells Me So".

Karen Lundell played a piano solo, "Chopin Waltz", and "Arkansas Traveler".

The bottle band that consists of Loy Keene, Bill Salter, Gary Brenner, John Howton, Wayne Ball, and Mr. Stephenson played three numbers.

Girl's quartette; Jean Swanson, Judy Howton, Sharon Cutsforth, and Carolyn Crabtree sang "He".

Sandra Eubanks tap danced.

A pantomime by Dianne Petty-John.

Vocal selection by Sidney Zinter with his ukulele.

Poem by Dot Halvorsen.

Instrumental; "Heart and Soul" and "Rock-a-Beaten Boogie" by the dance band.

Members of the band are Loy Keene, Gary Brenner, Judy Howton, Wayne Ball, Ernest Drake, Bert Akers and Mr. Stephenson.

Ladies' Sextette sang "The Green Cathedral" and "April Showers".

The sextette consisted of Donna Bergstrom, Helen Petty-John, Judy Howton, Veda Brenner, Patricia Tucker, and Jean Nelson.

They called themselves the "Six Drips and a Drop."

Reading by Bob Rice.

Vocal duet by Irene Leathers and her daughter Darlene, singing "Band of Gold" and "Whispering Hope."

Demonstration of an invention by John Howton.

Vocal solo by Cheryl Lundell singing "Open Up Your Heart".

Story telling by Marvin Padberg.

After refreshments were served the winners were announced.

First place—Karen Lundell and her piano solo. Second place—Sandra Eubanks and her tap dancing. Third place—the high school dance band. We know everyone there really enjoyed themselves. It was very entertaining.

Sixth and Seventh Grade News

Ione did very well at the spelling contest in Boardman. The pupils chosen to go were Dalene McDonald, Michelle Morrison from the sixth and Jean Martin, Evelyn Jepsen from the seventh grade. Michelle missed 5 words and got a red ribbon. Dalene missed 1 word and got a blue ribbon. Evelyn also received a blue ribbon. Jean missed 7 and received a white one.

The seventh grade received first place in a track meet at the Arbor Day celebration.

The sixth grade is planning a hike for science class.

The Grade School Banquet

Reporter, Karen Lundell.

The grade school banquet was held on April 20, 1956. All the sixth, seventh, and eighth grade teachers, county superintendent, ministers, and the main speaker

John Dee Vestal Dies in Monument Tractor Accident

By Martha Matteson

John Dee Vestal was killed shortly after 9 a. m. Friday when a tractor overturned, pinning him beneath it. Vestal and Jim Nash were logging in the timber area about 8 miles west of here. Both were employed by the M & R logging company which is run by Tom Ross of Hamilton. Vestal had lived in Monument for the past three years.

Services were held in Monument Monday at 2 p. m. with interment in Rest Lawn Memorial Gardens in Salem.

John Dee Vestal, 28, was born July 23, 1927 at Princeton, Texas to Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Vestal who now live at Silverton, Ore. He was married May 17, 1946 at Independence, Ore., to Betty Holmes.

Surviving him are his widow; two sons, Danny and Larry; a daughter, Kathy; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Vestal; two brothers James and Alpha; and Mrs. Gladys Smith.

James Nash, who was operating the tractor when it overturned is in the Blue Mountain hospital at Prairie City. His wife is staying with him while their daughter is staying with her grandparents at Dayville.

Coming for the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Merle Bracken, Rickreall; Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Vestal; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jenkins, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Holmes, Salem; and Irene Clark of Springfield.

Mrs. Ann Erhardt and son Tom drove to John Day and Canyon City Friday on business.

Tom Ross drove to Portland Thursday night, returning Saturday with truck parts.

Mrs. Delmer Settle and children and Jessie Scott were down from Long Creek Thursday visiting at Bill Kellys, Melba Kellys and the Mattesons.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Engle drove to Redmond Tuesday to take his mother to the bus station on her way home to the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris Stubblefield and daughters, his mother Ellen Stubblefield and nephew Steven drove to Depoe Bay early Friday to spend the weekend with Steven's family, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Stubblefield. They returned home Sunday evening.

A pink and blue shower was held for Mrs. Marvin Saddle on April 18 at Melba Kellys with Clema Mellor as co-hostess. About 25 were present.

Marge Holmes was a business visitor in Prineville Saturday.

The American Legion and auxiliary held their regular meetings Thursday at the grange hall. Following the business meeting the Auxiliary held election of officers. President, Helen Holmes; vice president, Linnie Gilman; sec.-treas., Lillian Stubblefield; corresponding secretary, Mamie Ferguson; chaplain, Wave Jackson; historian, Marge Brandhagen; Sgt. at arms, Cleto Meljor.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Flemings drove to Heppner Saturday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne McCarty were in town Sunday from their mountain home. They visited at the Kingman home.

Maynard Hamilton was home for the weekend from Long Creek.

Dale Matteson, who has been working in Heppner at the Chevrolet garage, has returned here. He will be driving lumber truck from the mill in the basin to Pendleton.

Death Claims Ex-Boardman Woman

By Mary Lee Marlow

Mrs. Ella Blayden, 96, died Wednesday, April 18 in Eugene. She was a former resident of Boardman, she and her husband, the late George Blayden, who died in 1936, having been some of the first settlers here. She was born Sept. 1, 1859. She and her husband opened the first store here, and she served meals in the store. She was one of the first members of the Community church which was organized in Oct. 1917, she becoming a member on Nov. 4 of that year. Nine children were born to the couple, two of which preceded Mrs. Blayden in death. She has made her home the last several years with her daughter, Mrs. Marvel Gorham, in Eugene. Besides Mrs. Gorham, she is survived by three sons, Loren, Fred and Lyle Blayden; and three daughters, Mrs. Olive Payne, Mrs. Frances Olsen, and Mrs. Aldia Talbot. Funeral services were held Monday, April 23, in Eugene.

Dr. William Morgan, Hermiston, and Al Sherrill, Arlington, entertained members of the Boardman Commercial club and their guests at the meeting on Wednesday night of last week at the Saddle Room of the Hitchin' Post cafe with motion pictures and slides of their recent safari to French Equatorial Africa. They also had slides and pictures taken in Paris, France.

Guests at the meeting were wives of club members and 12 Lettermen from the high school. There were also several visitors from Arlington present.

Next meeting of the club will be Wednesday, May 16, at which time Allen Tom, representative of congress, who will be present to speak on taxation.

Mrs. Carolina Steinke, 74, wife of Herman Steinke, Arlington mother of Mrs. Louise Earwood of Boardman, died suddenly Sunday morning in Arlington, death being due to a heart attack.

She was born in Germany in Feb. 1882. Besides her husband and Mrs. Earwood, she is survived by five sons and five daughters, Ben Steinke, Portland; Reinold Steinke, San Bernardino, Calif.; Otto, Rudolph and Richard Steinke, Olex; Mrs. Larry Payne and Mrs. Lester Bassett, San Diego, Calif.; Mrs. Walter Wright, Amarillo, Tex.; Mrs. Clifford Wood, Roseburg; Mrs. Edwin Strahm, Arlington.

Funeral services will be held at the Methodist church in Arlington on Thursday, April 26. Mrs. Joe Tatone was hostess for a pink and blue shower at her home last Friday evening in honor of Mrs. Bill Wilson. Present were Mrs. Charles Baraga, Mrs. Helen Hendrickson, Juanita Torpey, Deloris Tatone and Prudence Kennedy. In games played prizes were won by Mrs. Hendrickson, Miss Torpey and Miss Kennedy.

More people named Jones*

own Chevrolets than any other car!

*Of course we haven't actually counted all the Joneses. But it seems a safe guess. Because this year—as they have year after year—more people are buying Chevrolets. And 2 million more people drive Chevrolets than any other car. Maybe you ought to come in and see why this is so.
