Legal Notices NOTICE OF ANNUAL SCHOOL MEETING Notice is hereby given, in compliance with Sec. 331-010, O. R. S., to the legal voters of School District No. 1 cj, of Morrow county, State of Oregon, that the Annual School Meeting of said District will be held at the Multipurpose room of the Heppner Grade School; to begin at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m. on the third Monday in June, being the 18th day of June, A. D. 1956 and continue until 8 o'clock p. m. of said day.

Notice is hereby given that an election will be held in the following described territory which is proposed to be annexed to the City of Boardman, and said territory proposed to be annexed is bounded and described as follows:

Commencing at the center of Section 8, T 4 N, R 25 EWM, said point being the Southeast corner of the City of Boardman, Oregon, thence East to the Southeast corner of the Southwest Quarter of said Section 8, thence North to the South meander line of the Columbia River, thence West following the said South meander line of the Columbia River to the West boundary line of said Section 8, thence South along said West boundary line of Section 8, to the Northwest corner of the City of Boardman, thence Easterly along the North boundary line of the City of Boardman, to the North-South center line of Section 8, thence South along said center line and the East boundary line of the City of Boardman to the point of beginning. All being in Section 8, T 4 N, R 25 EWM, Morrow County, Oregon.

Also for the purpose of submitting to the legal voters of said district the question of increasing the tax levy for the fiscal year 1956-1957 over the amount limited by section 11, article XI of the Constitution of Oregon.

The reasons for increasing such levy are: A supplementary budget is needed for district No. 1cj in the amount of $15,660.75 due to the fact that the Rural School Board did not allow funds for capital outlay, and such supplementary budget is needed for remodeling of the lunch room and home economics department.

The amount of tax, in excess of 6% limitation, proposed to be levied for said fiscal year is $15,660.75. And the transaction of business usual at such meeting. Dated this 23rd day of May, 1956.

"MONDAY MORNING" Failure to win the Republican nomination as Secretary of State has in no way dimmed the rising political star of William E. Healy. Healy received more than 90,000 votes against these odds:

His name never before had been on a ballot. He had spent eight years trying to build Earl T. Newbury. Newbury endorsed his opponent. Most of the newspapers recommended his opponent, although all were high in their praise of Healy's administrative ability.

The state Republican organization was already pledged to his opponent. He was unable to raise the money necessary for a statewide campaign. Most regrettable item of the whole campaign was a direct attack on Healy's church affiliation (he is a Catholic.) This left him a little bitter toward the present Republican leadership and may require some explaining before November.

NEW DEPARTMENT HEAD Warne H. Nunn, recently appointed director of the new department of motor vehicles announced Thursday that J. R. Williams will be comptroller of the department, operative July 1. It now is administered by the secretary of state.

MORGAN AND HIS MEN Early in July Democratic party chairmen and vice-chairmen of each county will meet to select a state chairman. Biennial runners, yet in the gab stage, are that Howard Morgan will have a minimum of opposition if he forgets former jousts with his adroit sparring partner, Monroe Sweetland.
