MISS JUNE PRIVETT BECOMES MRS. ALAN BROWN AT SUNDAY CEREMONY

Miss June Privett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chalmer Privett, and Alan Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Brown, Lakeview, were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Christian church. The Reverend R. Soward officiated at the nuptial ceremony. The bride who was given away by her father, wore a ballerina gown of white lace over a pink gown with three quarter sleeves and high neck. Her veil was held in place with a headpiece of tulle and seed pearls. The bride designed and made her veil and headdress and her gown was made by her mother. The bridal bouquet was of pink roses and stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Miss Billie Jean Privett of Pendleton, sister of the bride and the bridesmaids were Miss Carole Hinds, Pendleton, Miss Nancy Eberhardt, The Dalles and Miss Adelia Anderson, Heppner. They wore identical frocks of cotton eyelet embroidery, ballerina length in mint green with matching bandeaus which were decorated with seed pearls and carried nosegays of pink carnations. Candle lighters were Mrs. Laurin Young, sister of the groom of Lakeview and Miss Margaret Preston of The Dalles. The white candles were adorned with pink rosebuds.

Flower girls were Carla Young, niece of the groom and Charline Knox. They wore pink ruffled dresses and carried pink baskets of white roses. Ring bearers were Philip and Mark Blakney and best man was Jerry Bristow of Ione. Ushers were Wallace Brown, Lakeview, brother of the groom and Laurin Young of Lakeview, brother-in-law of the groom.

The bride's mother was dressed in a dress of white linen dress with white accessories. The groom's mother wore pink nylon crepe with white accessories. They both had white rosebud corsages.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. Charles Knox at the organ. Mrs. Fred Hoskins, Jr. sang "I Love You Truly", and "The Lord's Prayer."

Bouquets of white gladioli and carnations were used about the church rooms.

At the reception which followed in the basement of the church, the wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Lon C. Penney, Jr., Lakeview, aunt of the groom. Pouring coffee was Mrs. T. W. Rippee, of Boardman, great aunt of the bride. At the tea table was Mrs. George Blakney and Mrs. James Hayes was at the punch bowl. Assisting with the serving were the women of the church.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown and son Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Lon C. Penney and son Lonnie, Mr. and Mrs. Laurin Young and daughter Carla, Ted M. Thompson, all of Lakeview; Mrs. T. W. Rippee, Boardman; and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bristow, Ione.
