REBEKAH CONVENTION FOR DISTRICT 20 HELD IN HEPPNER FRIDAY

The Rebekah lodges of district No. 20, consisting of Sans Souci of Heppner, Bunch Grass of Ione, Holly of Lexington and Mistletoe of Hardman, held their annual convention June 22 with Sans Souci as the hostess lodge.

The meeting was called to order at 1:30 p. m. by Sans Souci, with Elsie Ayers, noble grand, presiding.

After the Assembly officers, president, Ethel Gibbs, president of Rebekah Assembly of Oregon; Bernice Thompson, Assembly conductor and Lola Osborn, past president, had been introduced and seated the chairs were surrendered to the convention officers. They were Ruth Bergstrom, chairman; Florence McMillan, vice chairman and Altha Kirk, secretary.

The address of welcome was given by Altha Kirk of Sans Souci and the response given by Edith Matthews of Bunch Grass.

After the roll call of convention officers and past chairmen, a tribute was given the past chairman by Bunch Grass lodge. There followed a roll call of lodges and their reports of the past year. All lodges were well represented.

The memorial service was beautifully presented by Sans Souci and a moment of silent prayer offered in memory of the departed members.

The tribute to the flag was given by Mistletoe, which concluded with the reading of the poem "Your Flag and My Flag" by Vern Batty.

The contest of unwritten work was held with Elaine Rietmann winning first.

Mistletoe gave an exemplification of presenting the Bible. This was done by Thelma Smet-hurst. Sans Souci then paid tribute to those of 50 years membership, Millie Doolittle and Emma Jones.

Holly paid tribute to the Assembly president, Ethel Gibbs, and the work was beautifully done and graciously accepted.

Mistletoe extended an invitation to the convention for 1958. Florence McMillan was elected chairman for 1957, for the convention at Lexington. Delsie Chapel of Mistletoe was elected vice chairman and Delpha Jones, secretary-treasurer.

The address by president Ethel Gibbs was followed by gifts being presented to her and other distinguished guests. One of the highlights of the convention was the visit of Lola Osborn, past president of the Assembly.

The new convention officers were seated by Holly lodge. Gifts of book marks in the shape of a cross were presented to each member. The members surrendered their chairs to Sans Souci and lodge was closed.

In the evening there was a banquet prepared by the Triple Link club of Sans Souci, after which president Ethel Gibbs showed slides of the Oddfellows home in Portland.

At the lodge meeting which followed Ethel Gibbs gave an address and Sans Souci gave the initiatory degree.

Summers Family Reunion Held Here

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wyman were hosts for the fourth annual Summers family reunion last weekend.

Saturday night dinner and a Sunday morning outdoor pancake breakfast were held at the Wyman home. Sunday dinner was at 2 p. m. in the Catholic church basement. About 150 attended.

Officers elected were Mrs. Art Bousquet of Umatilla, president; Mrs. Bill Wilkins, La Grande, Secretary-Treasurer and assistants elected were Matt Cooney, and Mary Schmidt, Condon. The oldest member of the family present, Mrs. Mamie Summers Wasmuth, Portland was elected honorary vice-president. The youngest boy present was Darrell Nelson and the youngest girl, Rene Marie Monahan.

The history of the Summers family in America begins with Michael Summers who came to America from Ireland in 1856 and landed at New Orleans. Mary Ellen McCormick came to America from Ireland in the same year and they were married in 1858, five children resulting from this union. They were Mary Ellen Summers Cooney; Kate Summers Russell; Delia Summers Smith; Emmet Summers and Mike Summers. Michael Summers died in 1880 in New Mexico and his wife came to Oregon with three of the children in 1883, settling at Condon. The other children came to Oregon later. Mary Ellen Summers died and was buried at Condon in 1899.
