Spring Beauty Salad From Florida

As sunny and glamorous as Florida itself are the big juicy Valencia oranges which are now rolling into markets all over the country. The seedless, sweeter Valencias will be shipped from Florida through June and they make this the time of year to get more of this vitamin C-goodness in your daily menus.

This salad features Valencias in slices—being seedless they're easy to slice or section, and lend themselves to all sorts of salad and fruit cup uses. Here they circle a mound of nutritious cottage cheese, colorfully set off with sliced strawberries. Serve with bowl of crisp salad greens and a choice of dressings, and watch sunny appetites develop round your table.
