COTTONS GO TO PARTIES

Fresh as a rose with the dew still on it, and typical of this summer's cool, crisp fashion look, is this attractive and washable party cotton. A Jerry Parnis design in sheer, opaque cotton, the heart-shaped neckline and Empire bodice are outlined in tiny white chalk beads and occasional rhinestones. Modern science helps keep this season's costumes bright and fresh as new with a minimum of care. A new chlorine dry bleach in bead form that is guaranteed not to harm fabrics will maintain the fresh prettiness of the pink and white shadow print for many seasons to come. Simply launder with detergent, plus the bleach-beads. Rinse thoroughly. When ironing around the neck and bodice, place a turkish towel under trimming and iron gently on wrong side.
