Malone-Adams Wedding July 22 at All Saints'

Miss Nancy Adams, daughter of Mrs. Floyd Nelson Adams and the late Mr. Adams, and Edgar Wallace Malone, son of Mrs. William Malone and the late Mr. Malone of Pensacola, Florida, were married in a double ring ceremony Sunday July 22 in All Saints Episcopal church with Rev. George R. S. Little officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle Robert M. Clark, Jr., wore a gown of imported net over satin with a bodice of imported lace and medallions of lace applied on the skirt and trimmed with sequins and pearls. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a cap of sequins and pearls and she wore pearl earrings and necklace which were a gift from the groom.

She carried a bouquet of a white orchid with stephanotis on her white Rainbow Girl Bible.

She had a sixpence in her shoe, given her by her uncle; something blue, a garter; something old, her great-grandmother's wedding ring and something borrowed was a Brushels lace handkerchief, loaned by Mrs. Clive Huston.

Miss Joan Borthick, Mills college classmate, was maid of honor and wore a dress of blue embroidered starched net over taffeta with mitts to match. Her headress was of white daisies and she carried a cascade bouquet of daisies.

The bridesmaids, dressed like the maid of honor, were Mrs. William Love, cousin of the bride, Miss Sally Cohn and Mrs. Verne Bell.

Junior bridesmaid, Miss Toby Clark, cousin of the bride, wore blue organza trimmed with bands of white eyelet embroidery with a headress and bouquet of white daisies.

Kathy Roscoe, niece of the bride, was flower girl and she was dressed in blue nylon dotted swiss with a headband of daisies and she carried a basket of daisies. She was escorted by Jeffery Ogden Turner.

Serving as best man was Albert Burkenbine, who had been a friend of the groom in Japan while they were both in the service. Ushers were Keith Connor, Gerald Bergstrom, Kenneth Turner and Robert Mahoney.

James Wightman was acolyte and Laurel Beach sang "Oh Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer". Mrs. C. C. Carmichael was at the organ.

On the altar of the church were blue delphinium and blue gladioli with baskets of white mums and tinted gladioli and fern about the church.

At the reception which followed in the parish house, the tea table was covered with an ivory cloth with silver threads and centered with an arrangement of white roses and candles.

Mrs. Robert M. Clark, Jr., aunt of the bride, cut the cake after the bride and groom had cut the first piece. Pouring were Mrs. J. O. Turner and Mrs. Joseph Bellinger, godmother of the bride. Mrs. P. W. Mahoney was hostess and Mrs. Laura Howard Coonse had charge of the guest book. Miss Meredith Thomson passed a basket with packages of blue rice.

Assisting with the reception were Mrs. Joe Hughes and Mrs. D. H. Jones.

The bride's mother was dressed in blue lace over pink taffeta with a flowered hat and black accessories. She wore an orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore champagne lace over natural taffeta with beige accessories and a pink rose corsage.

For going away the bride had a white linen sheath dress with cocoa print, a cocoa duster lined with matching print and hat to match. She wore her white orchid and had white accessories.

After a wedding trip to Canada the couple will return to Heppner for a few days before making their home in Tibaron, California where the groom is stationed with the Navy and the bride will teach in the school there.

The bride is a graduate of Heppner high school and Mills college and the groom attended school in Pensacola, Florida and Swannee University.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Robert M. Clark, Sr., Portland, grandfather of the bride; Mrs. William Malone, Pensacola, Florida, mother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Clark, Jr., aunt and uncle of the bride of Tibaron, California and their daughters Toby, Lorraine, Peggy and Mrs. William Love of Sausalito, Calif.; Mrs. John Roscoe, sister of the bride, Kathy and Robert, Moab, Utah; Mrs. Leila Sawyers, great aunt of bride, Albany, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bellinger, Robert and Joanna, Milton-Freewater; Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Ogletree, Brookings; Mrs. Verne Bell and Debra, Portland; Miss Joan Borthick, Portland; Mrs. Laura Coonse, Miss Martha Howard, Great Falls, Montana; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burkenbine, Pilot Rock; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Parker, Pasco; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelly, Everett, Wash.; Miss Lida Malone, Pensacola, Florida; James Wightman, Salinas, Calif.; Laurel Edwin Beach, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDaniel, Hermiston; Mrs. Sam McMillan, Milwaukie, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Don Turner, Ginny Lou and Jeffery,
