Miss Rena Anderson And Donald Gillespie Married at Boardman

By Mary Lee Marlow
Miss Rena Rae Anderson, daughter of Ray G. Anderson of Willamina, and Mrs. Eileen Anderson of Medford, became the bride of Donald Ivor Gillespie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Zearl J. Gillespie of Boardman, in a double ring ceremony at 7 p. m. on Friday, July 20, at the Boardman Community church. The Rev. Stewart Goude, pastor of the Congregational church in Condon, performed the candlelight service before an altar decorated with huge baskets of gladioli, which were from the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Miller.

Mrs. Gunnar Skoubo and Mrs. Nate Macomber. It centered a lace-covered table, while the punch and coffee were served from a separate lace-covered table. Bouquets of gladioli were used about the room. After the first piece of cake was cut by the couple, it was cut and served by Mrs. Truman Messenger, Sr., Mitchell, and Mrs. Ray Barlow, Eugene, aunts of the groom. Susan Barlow, Eugene, cousin of the groom, poured the coffee, and Mrs. Frank Marlow, Boardman, served at the punch bowl. Mrs. Claud Coats, Boardman, aunt of the groom, was in charge of the reception, assisted by Mrs. Nate Macomber, Mrs. Arthur Allen, Mrs. Russell Miller, Mrs. Glen Carpenter and Mrs. Florence Root.

Mrs. Art Gillespie, Moses Lake, Wash., aunt of the groom, and the groom's mother were in charge of the gift table, and Susan Barlow, Eugene, cousin of the groom, had the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Anderson wore a beige linen suit with matching accessories, with a corsage of yellow carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of summer silk print with white hat and accessories. Her corsage was pink carnations.

For going away the bride wore a sheath dress of beige print, with tan coat lined with print to match the dress. Her corsage was the purple orchid from her bridal bouquet, and she had matching accessories.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Boardman high school and have been attending E. O. C. E. at La Grande. After a short trip to Oregon coastal points they are living in the Hoot apartments above the post office. They will attend O. S. C. at Corvallis this fall.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Ray Barlow, Eugene, uncle of the groom; Mrs. Vern Willkie and daughter Barbara, and Billie Gillespie, cousins of the groom, Moses Lake, Wash.; Ronnie Anderson, Medford, brother of the bride; Truman Messenger, Sr., and Carol Messenger of Mitchell, uncle and cousin of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Marquardt, Norita and Ricky Marquardt, Lexington, cousins of the groom; Mrs. Franklin Messenger and daughters Marcia and Laurel, Lexington; Mrs. Truman Messenger, Jr., and daughters Charlotte and Loretta, Hermiston, all cousins of the groom; and Mrs. Charles Barlow, Heppler, aunt of the groom.

Franklin Messenger, Lexington, cousin of the groom, was best man, and ushers were Duane Brown, Pendleton, and Gerald Anderson, brother of the bride. They also were the candlelighters.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the grange hall, with about 90 guests attending. The beautiful four-tiered cake, topped by bridal figurines in a heart, was made by
