Janet Wright Tells Soroptimist Club of 4-H Summer School

Janet Wright, the recipient of the 4-H scholarship given by the Soroptimist club, told the club of her activities while attending 4-H summer school at Corvallis, at their noon meeting Thursday at O'Donnell's.

This is the first year the school had groups of study for junior leaders and Janet took training in this group.

Her mother, Mrs. Walter Wright spoke briefly on 4-H leadership, stating this was her tenth year in 4-H work and she also told some of her recent trip to New York.

Guests were Mrs. Wright, and Janet, Mrs. Carl Spaulding, Mrs. George Terrell, Mrs. Joe Wright and Mrs. Frank Connor.

Janet Fancher Has Fifth Birthday

Janet Fancher celebrated her fifth birthday with a party Monday, August 13 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Fancher.

Guests were Jon O'Donnell, Brian Thompson, Mandy Smith, La Verne Van Marter III, Jody Fancher, and B. J. Fancher. A penny candy hunt and fish pond were features of the afternoon and birthday refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith and family have returned from a weeks vacation on which they saw the Oregon Caves, Crater Lake, the Oregon coast and visited with friends and relatives in Portland and Vancouver.

The One-Bag Wardrobe — Latest in Long-Distance Travel!

Here, off on a 8 weeks trip, a smart young lady who knows the travel score. Taking advantage of the new lightweight, easy-care fabrics, she needs a minimum of dresses to be well-groomed every inch of the way—can carry them all in one compact travel case! Realizing the importance of this new trend, famous-for-fit designer Nelly Don has fashioned a complete travel wardrobe noted for its lightness, packability and non-wilting beauty. An excellent example is the new sheath dress above, in crease-resistant pin point suiting of cotton and acetate, in Fall shades, sizes 12 to 40, and custom sizes for the shorter-proportioned figure.

Wedding Held At Long Creek

By Martha Matteson
Maxine Jenkins became the bride of Johnny Owings at candlelight services Monday evening at the Seventh Day Adventist church at Long Creek. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Kenneth Holmes and best man was Jay Stamerferd. Maid of honor was Margaret Holmes, sister of the groom; candle lighters were Gwen Van Detta and Christina Ross; flower girls were Karen Jenkins and Rena Ross. Bible bearer was Bobby Holmes and singers were Mr. Harms and Mrs. Mittleider. The service was performed by evangelist Kenneth J. Mittleider.

Following the services a reception was held in the school library. The couple left for a week's honeymoon and will make their home in one of the mill houses.

George Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Flemings and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mellor and children drove to Ritter hot springs on Sunday.

Boyd Hinton drove to Ritter hot springs Saturday with a load of children for picnic and swimming.

Elmer Matteson and Bob Kingman went to the high hills Saturday with the rock hounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Scott and son and Dale Matteson came in Saturday from Long Creek. They returned home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Doris Kingman has her nephew Robert Scott staying with her for two or three days.

The R. E. A. had a picnic Sunday at Pioneer Memorial park below Spray. All board members and families and many of the workers and their families, about 100 in all, attended.
