Garden Club Plans Flower Show at Ione

By Echo Palmateer

The Ione Garden club met in the city park August 14 with Mrs. Elbe Akers and Mrs. Sam Esteb as hostesses. Members wore hats made from vegetable and flowers from the yards and gardens. There were some very interesting hats worn. The year books were given out at the meeting. A flower show, "Fashions and Flowers" will be held at the Legion hall Sept. 23 in the afternoon. The Garden club will be assisted by the Ione Sorority. Plans are under way and schedules will be out soon. The Daily Vacation Bible school at the Community church which lasted a week, ended with a program Friday evening August 17. It consisted of a song, Praise Him, Praise Him and memory verses by the kindergarten group; the song, A Boy Named David and memory verses by the primary group; the junior group sang, Jesus Just Now, and the intermediates sang a song and both the groups gave memory verses. Songs were also sung by the combined groups. A picnic was held in the city park at noon on Friday.

An average of 72 attended the school. It was sponsored by the Nazarene church with Rev. Charles Wilkes, pastor, supervisor. The teachers were Mrs. Ray Barnett, Mrs. Ruby Nichols, Mrs. John Hatfield, and Mrs. Wilkes. The helpers were Mrs. R. H. Woodroof, Lyle Kincaid and Bonnie Crum. Louise Botts was the secretary. The groups' made pot-holders, plaques and other hand work.

Baptismal services were held for Cynthia Jean Crawford, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Crawford Sunday, August 19 at the Community church with Rev. Alfred Shirley, pastor officiating. Mrs. Tad Miller and Berl Akers, Jr. were the sponsors. Special music at the church services were: a violin solo by Mrs. Kenneth Smouse and a vocal duet by Mrs. Lloyd Morgan and Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn. Both numbers were accompanied by Mrs. Cleo Drake. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mason were visitors at the home of his sister, Mrs. Clara Kincaid and the Lewis Halvorsen home last week. They took their granddaughter, Mrs. Jack Brink, to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dorr Mason in Hines and brought their other granddaughter, Alyce Mason, to stay at the Halvorsen home.

Again this year at the Fair there will be many new events and numerous divisions and classes have been added for greater interest. Whatever your special interests may be you'll find them at this year's Fair. Remember... the fair is yours, and to make it bigger, you must be a part of it. You still have time to get a premium list from the county agent's office and prepare your entries. It's fun and it can be profitable.
