Thanks-

We wish to announce to our customers in Heppner, Lexington, Ione and vicinity that we have sold the Thrifty Market in Hermiston to Gene and Lois Johnston of Milwaukie, Oregon.

At this time we wish to express our thanks and appreciation for the business you have given us in the past.

The new owners are going to continue to be affiliated with Associated Grocers Inc. The largest food buying power in the world.

Store policies and customer relations will be the same as during our ten years of business.

The eleven employees will be retained with Clark Dumond as manager. Mr. Dumond has been in our employment for two years. The Thrifty Market crew will strive to please you which we hope we have done in the past.

Again we say thanks to each and everyone of you and will always remember you as good friends and customers.
