PONY KICKS

By Shirlee Upton
Miss Witchcraft is making her home in the 7b room until Halloween. Her cauldron will soon hold fortunes for the class. Row 4 is leading in arithmetic in "thinking problems" with the rest of the class following as a very close second. The October birthdays being celebrated in Mrs. Boulden's room are Libby Van Scholack and Archie Ball. Happy birthday! Grade School Forms Constitution Plans were laid at a faculty meeting Monday, October 8, to begin the formation of a student government organization for the grades seven and eight. The first step will be to have the presi-

Chocolate Tops the Pie

SURPRISE THE FAMILY with a new taste treat and top your next chiffon or cream pie with this wonderful fudgy frosting. It's a "no cook" topping and quite simple to make but it has a rich chocolate flavor and a creamy smooth texture.

Here is a coconut cream filling that is being topped with chocolate, but this same frosting is delicious on any flavor cream or chiffon pie you make. It makes any pie a party pie.

CHOCOLATE FROSTED PIE

- 6 tablespoons butter
- 6 tablespoons confectioners' sugar
- 1 1/2 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted
- 1 egg yolk, unbeaten

Cream butter, then add sugar gradually, blending well. Add melted chocolate and egg yolk; mix thoroughly. Spread on top of chilled cream or chiffon pie. Chill until ready to serve. Makes enough topping for 8- or 9-inch pie.

Coconut Cream Filling. Empty contents of one package coconut cream pudding and pie filling mix into saucepan. Add 2 cups milk gradually, blending well. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture comes to a full boil and is thickened (about 5 minutes). Cool slightly (about 5 minutes), stirring once or twice. Turn into baked 8-inch pie shell. Chill and frost with Chocolate Topping. (ANS)

Boardman News

By Mary Lee Marlow

The first week of deer season 17 bucks were brought into Hayes Market. The largest one was shot by Bill Garner, a four point weighing about 250 pounds, shot near Long Creek.

Duane Brown, former resident here, is a patient in The Dalles hospital after surgery on his knee last Thursday. Brown, an employee of the state highway department at The Dalles, received an injury to his knee Sept. 28, when some ground crumbled under him. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Brown, Pendleton, stopped at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Briggs Thursday on their way home from The Dalles.

Mrs. Olive Mefford has left the Good Shepherd hospital in Hermiston, and is at the Bel-Air Court, Apt. 3, on East Third street. Her condition still remains critical.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Knight, of Goldendale, Wash., were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Knight's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Shattuck. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Tannehill went to Portland Sunday where Tannehill, Morrow county grange deputy, attended a state meeting of county deputies Monday and Tuesday. After that they were to go to Eugene to visit at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Tannehill.

The county extension unit's sewing class for children's shirts and blouses met at the grange hall Monday afternoon. Leaders are Mrs. Everett Daniels and Mrs. William Garner. Other Boardman ladies taking the class are Mrs. Claud Worden, Mrs. Zearl Gillespie, Mrs. Gene Hiegel, Mrs. Bob Stewart, Mrs. Don Downey and Refreshments were served by Diane Schaffitz. A penny hike followed the meeting and refreshments.

Heppner High School SCOOP

By Judie Spaulding
Boys and Girls of the Month, Meredith Thomson and Jay Sumner, were chosen as outstanding examples of "the courteous student". Both of these young people have promising records of scholastic achievement as well as participation in activities.

The Oregon scholastic press conference will be held at the University of Oregon in Eugene Friday and Saturday, October 12 and 13. Eight students will attend from Heppner high. Three from the annual staff are Jay Sumner, Janice Beamer and Phyllis Quackenbush. Paper staff members attending are Meredith Thomson, Mary Jo Stewart, Karen Valentine, Mickey Nichols and Helen Graham.

Joe Stewart, superintendent of Heppner schools is attending the Northwest drive-in conference for high school principals in Salem.

Next week Hehlisch staff members plan to see businessmen who were not contacted before the first issue went to press. With a new paper staff the first issue progressed more slowly than anticipated.

WA CAN TE KA CAMPFIRE GIRLS

The Wa Can Te Ka Camp Fire Girls met October 1 for community service.

The first official meeting was held October 4 at the home of the leader.

Florence Morris, secretary, presided in the absence of the president and vice president.

The group approved the following motions: to send cards to "Karen", the little victim of burns, who is due to have several operations; to send yarn and quilt pieces to several charity groups; to publish names of absentees from our future meetings; to carry out part of our Torch Bearer projects at our regular meetings; to hold an election at our next meeting, on October 18.

ON THE FARM PROBLEM

Al Ullman considers the problem of restoring farm income as the most important issue that faces this district. He will work for sound commodity programs put together on the farmer level with direct help to the farmer rather than trickle-down programs. He favors the Domestic Parity plan for wheat and will work for its enactment. Al Ullman favors a program to bring cattle prices into proper adjustment. What has Sam Coon done for the farmer?
