"Mom and Me" Night Helb by Homemakers

The first evening meeting of the Heppner school chapter of Future Homemakers met on Wednesday, Sept 26 for a "Mom and Me" night in the new homemaking room. About fifty mothers and daughters attended.

Judy Collins, president of the Heppner chapter of FHA and delegate to the national FHA convention in Chicago last July gave a very informative talk about the national meeting. She emphasized the opportunities for girls who join the organization.

A Simplicity Pattern Company wardrobe of current fashions for school girls was made available through the cooperative planning of Miss Beverly Bradshaw, Morrow county extension agent in home economics and Mrs. Homer Hager, local FHA advisor.

Girls who modeled the attractive garments were Phyllis Quackenbush, Janice Martin, Joann Brosnan, Wilma Bothwell, Carole Ann Anderson, Ruth Peterson, Karen Valentine, Judy Collins, Roseann Ayers, Bonnie Hannan, Connie Anderson, Shirley Van Winkle, Marlene Griffin and Judy Collins.

The garments were from current patterns which included jumpers, jersey sweaters, lined suits and coats, jackets, Bermuda shorts, party dresses and formals. Many interesting accessories were included.

Mrs. Hager explained to the mothers some of the features of the attractive newly remodeled homemaking department.

She announced that FHA is an organization for girls enrolled in home economics. She said that the Heppner chapter plans to hold regular meetings the first Wednesday night of the month in the homemaking room.

The Eastern Oregon district FHA conference is scheduled for Saturday, October 27th at Vale, Oregon. Heppner plans to have a delegation attend.

Refreshments were served by the refreshment committee.

GOOD HUNTING!

May every hunter aim well
 And strive each day—
 To uphold the pledge of
 The Red Hat way!

Most experienced hunters
 From this locality—
 Know and apply the rules
 For others' safety!

Each should teach others
 To do the same!
 Especially those who are
 New at the game!

Did You Forget?

ONE OF THESE DAYS...

You're going to want one of your fall or winter dresses (or your husband will be needing that dark suit). If you forgot, it will be hanging there in the closet all dusty and wrinkled, but . . . if you remember to give us a call right now, we'll get those fall clothes dry cleaned and smartly pressed for you so they'll be ready when you want them.

P. S.—How about the youngster's heavy jackets. When we clean them they look just like new. Better send them along too!
