dated agency under ORS 190,010 for the purpose of permitting such agency to conduct in its own name, planning studies and surveys for the benefit of the participating agencies. School districts have power to enter into such agreements.

A nominee of a political party, nominated under the primary election law for the office of county assessor need not file an acceptance of such nomination; upon his removal from the county, such nominee becomes ineligible as a candidate, and the county central committee may fill the vacancy. A withdrawal tendered by a nominee must be signed by him and acknowledged.

Cost of Absenteeism
Absenteeism costs American industry about $1,000,000,000 a year," Dr. William Menninger told a meeting of delegates for the annual meeting of the Industrial Health Conference last week. Absenteeism is joined by accidents and alcoholism in causing the heavy loss to the nation's economy and one person in every 50 is now affected by alcoholism.

State Institutions
State institutions included in the budget and estimated costs include, a building at the new State Hospital near Wilsonville, $4,131,000 as a second installment on the estimated 15 million eventual cost; a new reformatory near Salem, $2,000,000; 400-bed dormitory at Fairview Home, $1,280,000; new building at Eastern Oregon State Hospital, $800,000; State prison cell block, $750,000; a dormitory at MacLaren School for Boys, $600,000; dormitory at Hillcrest School for Girls, $550,000.

FOR TOURISTS AND OTHERS
Every city in Oregon could benefit by noting a program of information for tourists just launched by the Salem Chamber of Commerce.

Stanley Grove, C of C manager, has committees working to mark historical sites in the Salem area with read-as-you-run signs.

The first to receive markers according to committee schedule will be the Jason Lee house, Willson Park, early Legislative Halls and Supreme Court chambers, Chemeketa Hotel, Jason Lee Cemetery and Cox's store, first in Salem.

NEW LEGAL OPINIONS
Opinions on Oregon laws made by Attorney General Robert Y. Thornton last week included: Tide or overflow lands may be leased or sold by the State Land Board to the State Game Commission for boat slips, without advertising for bids.

A credit union has power and authority under the credit union law to act as assignee for the benefit of itself and other creditors.

Municipalities may enter into an agreement creating a consolidated agency under ORS 190,010 for the purpose of permitting such agency to conduct in its own name, planning studies and surveys for the benefit of the participating agencies. School districts have power to enter into such agreements.

Every city in Oregon could benefit by noting a program of information for tourists just launched by the Salem Chamber of Commerce.

Stanley Grove, C of C manager, has committees working to mark historical sites in the Salem area with read-as-you-run signs.

Dr. Menninger, the famed head of the Menninger Foundation of Topeka, Kansas, continued.

CONVICTION UPHELD
The Oregon Supreme Court Wednesday upheld the conviction of Ethel Story, Dallas, for the shooting and wounding of her husband Frank last November.

The State Unemployment Compensation Commission needs a statistician and now. The job requires a college education with a mathematics background and courses in statistics.

Starting salary is $310 a month. Applicants should apply at the state civil service commission in Salem or Portland.
