WHAT'S DOING

D. A. Short, your Telephone Manager for Heppner

He found phones wherever he went

Recently, Mr. Bill Brown and his family took an auto trip to attend a business conference. After he returned, he sat down and wrote us a letter saying: "The new modern roadside telephone booths were one of the most useful conveniences we found. They are everywhere, even out in state parks away from city populations. They saved us hours of time and eliminated so much of the annoyance of waiting." Right you are, Mr. Brown. When you're away from home and have a call to make just look for that familiar Bell emblem. It means there's a phone handy.

Where were you when that call came in?

The last time the telephone rang in your home, where were you? Cooking dinner in the kitchen, doing up that blouse in the sewing room or out in the workshop finishing up that chair? Wouldn't it have been swell just to reach out and answer the phone instead of rushing halfway through the house to get the call? Telephones in the rooms you use a lot are convenient. The cost is $1.25 a month for each one after a single installation charge. You can call us today and make yours a telephone-convenient home.

You can go visiting now—by telephone

Next time that youngster of yours looks up and asks: "When are we going to visit grandmother again?" you don't have to reply: "Oh, on next summer's vacation," or "Well, perhaps at Christmas time." You can just say, "Why, right now." And then pick up your telephone and make a warm and friendly long distance call. And don't forget, rates are lower after 6 p.m. on weekdays and all day Sundays. It's a wonderful way to keep in touch. Pacific Telephone.

Picture of a Senator talking to himself

Oregon's senior Senator—Wayne Morse—needs no magic wand to make Senators disappear. He simply starts talking—and they walk out.

During the 1955 and 1956 Congressional sessions, he delivered 70 major addresses. But after the first five minutes, his average audience was less than 8 Senators.

The Congressional Record gives the facts. Here are some: on February 1, 1955, 76 Senators left the floor five minutes after Morse began his speech; on March 23, 1955, 75 Senators walked out; on June 5, 1956, 71 Senators disappeared.

For example, here is the box-score of the attendance during Morse's major Senate speech of March 23, 1956, starting a few minutes after he began to talk.

TIME	SENATORS PRESENT	VISITORS	PRESS GALLERY
5:05 P.M.	1	—	—
6:00 P.M.	0	6	2
7:00 P.M.	0	7	1
8:00 P.M.	0	11	0
9:00 P.M.	0	9	0

* There is always, of course, a presiding officer who many times is a Senator and many times when Morse speaks, Neuberger is in the chair.

ABOVE are several typical examples showing Morse's lack of prestige and influence among his colleagues. They consider him a mere exhibitionist—crazy for headlines, no matter how ridiculous he makes himself to get them.

No wonder the turncoat Senator confessed sadly on the Senate floor: "I am not very good at influence." (Congressional Record, July 2, 1952)

No wonder Morse remarked: "When I get 31 votes in the Senate on something, I have had a heyday..." So said Morse before the House Judiciary Subcommittee on May 16, 1955. (It takes at least 49 votes to pass a bill when all senators vote.)

Is this the kind of man you want to represent you?

Common sense says emphatically no.

That's why all of us—regardless of political affiliation—should elect the widely respected and influential DOUGLAS MCKAY—veteran of both World Wars, former Mayor, Governor and Cabinet Member—Oregon's next Senator on the Republican ticket!

Give Oregon its say—VOTE for MCKAY
