BUSCHKE-WRIGHT WEDDING HELD SATURDAY AT METHODIST CHURCH

Miss Judy Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wright and Delmer Buschke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Buschke were married Saturday at seven o'clock in a double-ring candlelight ceremony at the Methodist church. The Rev. L. E. Boulden officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white taffeta ballerina length gown, trimmed in lace and a short net veil with lace trim. She carried white orchids and stephanotis on a Job's Daughters prayer book.

Miss Joan Wright, sister of the bride was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Joyce Buschke, sister of the groom, Mrs. Kenneth Cutsforth, Mrs. Pat Cutsforth and Miss Toddice Slayton, Portland. They all wore sheath dresses of aqua brocade satin with back detail of net fishtail in the same color and aqua bandeaus trimmed with red roses. They carried spray bouquets of American Beauty roses.

Best man was Matthew Hughes and ushers were Herval Pettyjohn of Arlington, Max Gentry of Woodland, Sammy Shipp, brother-in-law of the groom, of Pasco and Bob Buschke, cousin of the groom. Candle lighters were Kathy Slayton, Portland and Barbara Warren who were both attired in gowns of white eyelet embroidery. Ronnie Jack of Tigard, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer and Sherri Lynn O'Brien was flower girl.

Mrs. Victor Kreimeyer played the wedding music and accompanied La Vonne Cox of Milton-Freewater, who sang "Walk Hand in Hand With Me," and "Always." The church was decorated with white spider mums in altar vases on the piano and candleabra. Mrs. Mary Van Stevens of The Dalles was in charge of flower arrangements and made the bouquets for the bridal party.

The bride's mother wore red wool with black velvet accessories and a white orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a two-piece beige gabardine suit with red accessories and a green orchid corsage.

At the reception in the church basement, Mrs. Burton Walrad of Gresham cut the cake, after the first cutting by the bride and groom. Miss Barbara Wright of Portland assisted in serving.

Pouring were Mrs. Ted Wright, aunt of the bride, The Dalles and Mrs. Carey Hastings, aunt of the groom. In charge of the gift table, were Mrs. Ivan Jack and Mrs. Robert Hogg, cousins of the bride of Tigard. Mrs. Phyllis Dimler, Beaverton had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Herval Pettyjohn of Arlington was at the punch bowl and Mrs. Pat O'Brien was in charge of the reception. The ladies of the church who helped in the kitchen were Mrs. Harry Duvall, Mrs. Whitmer Wright, Mrs. L. E. Boulden, Mrs. Carl McDaniel.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Buschke graduated from Heppner High school. The bride has been employed at the A. S. C. office and the groom is employed at the mill. After a wedding trip to California, the couple will reside in Heppner.

Mr and Mrs. Raymond Ferguson left Wednesday to spend several days in Portland.
