

Mustangs to Meet Echo Here Monday In Final Game

The Heppner high school Mustangs will play their final football game of the season next Monday when they meet their traditional rivals from Echo on the rodeo field. Game time is 2 p. m.

The game shapes up to be one of the best of the season, as both teams have made a fairly poor showing for the season and each is out to wind up the year with a victory.

About 200 Attend Hallowe'en Hayride

About 200 teenagers from the seventh grade through high school attended the annual hayride given Hallowe'en night by the Soroptimist club.

The Heppner students met at the school where they were taken by trucks to the Rhea creek grange hall for dinner, skits and dancing and games.

In the skits Mr. Snyder's and Mr. Willis' eighth grades split the first and second prizes of $7.50 and $5.00. The junior class was awarded the third prize of $2.50.

The youth committee of the club was in charge of the hayride with Mrs. E. E. Gonty as the chairman and Mrs. Joe Hughes, Mrs. C. E. McQuarrie, Mrs. Elaine George, Mrs. John Pfeiffer, Mrs. James Hager, Mrs. W. C. Collins, Mrs. Floyd Adams, Mrs. Grace Nickerson, Mrs. Roice Fullerton and Mrs. Oliver Creswick, assisting.

Members of the Rhea Creek grange and invited guests assisted with the serving, chaperoning and entertaining during the evening.

SON BORN

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Daly of Heppner are parents of a son, David Charles, born Oct. 19. He weighed 5 lbs., 11 ozs.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James Daly of Heppner and Mrs. Elizabeth Jerrard of La Grande.

FISHING WAS GOOD last week at Adams Lake, British Columbia as this collection of whoppers testifies. Bob Peterson of Ione returned with these big ones which he caught on a six pound spinning outfit. The four biggest trout are Dolly Vardens, the others Kamlops. The largest, being held by Peterson, measures 31½ inches and weighed 15 pounds. The lake is located near the home of the Vic Lovgrens, former residents of this area. (GT Photo)

Film On Elks Blind Program Available

Still available free to community groups in this area is the Oregon state Elks color movie "Out of the Darkness" which tells about the state Elks' pre-school nursery program for blind children. It is narrated by Johnny Carpenter, well known Oregon radio broadcaster.

Copies of the movie may be booked through the local Elks representative, Jack Van Winkle, phone Heppner 6-9725.

EXTENSION UNIT TO MEET NOVEMBER 13

The Heppner Extension unit will meet at the home of Mrs. Gene Ferguson Tuesday, Nov. 13 at 10:30 a. m. The project lesson will be "Oregon sweets" and leaders are Mrs. Al Fetsch and Mrs. Ferguson.

Luncheon will be served. Any homemaker interested in attending the meeting is welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cohn left today (Thursday) for Portland where they will attend a wool-growers meeting.

HOSPITAL NEWS

New Arrivals—To Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Driscoll, Kinzua, a 5 lb. 15 oz. boy born Oct. 31, named Michael Joseph. To Mr. and Mrs. Edgar East, Lexington a 6 lb. 8 oz. girl born Nov. 2, named Katherine Marie. To Mr. and Mrs. James Mallon, Heppner, a 7 lb. 3 oz. boy born Nov. 2, named Cary James.

Medical—Elbert Yokum, Kinzua, dismissed; Faye Prock, Heppner, dismissed; Jim Cowins, Heppner; Elaine Umphrey, Condon, dismissed; John Younce, Spray, dismissed; LaVonnie Gammel, Heppner; Verna Tate, Condon, dismissed; Ethel Hunt, Fossil; Reba Grabill, Heppner, dismissed; Mary Shipley, Kinzua;

Erie Kennedy, Condon, dismissed; Kenneth Knighten, Mayville, dismissed; James Worlein, Kinzua; Minnie Didier, Condon, dismissed; Alonzo Edmondson, Heppner; Denward Bergevin, Ione; Jessie Pattee, Condon; Cara Lee Corbin, Heppner; Terry Peck, Heppner.

Minor Surgery—Betty Knudson, Heppner; James Howton, Ione; Grace Turner, Heppner.

Major Surgery—James Thomson, Heppner.

Farm-City Week Banquet Planned

A farm-city banquet honoring the Morrow county grassman of the year, Alvin Wagenblast, Lexington and the conservation men of the year, Norman and Alfred Nelson, Lexington, will be held Monday, Nov. 19, at 6:30 p. m. at the American Legion hall under the joint sponsorship of the chamber of commerce and the Heppner Soil Conservation district. It was announced at the monthly meeting of the soil district Tuesday afternoon in the bank building, Charles W. Smith, former county agent here and assistant director of extension service, Oregon State college, will be the guest speaker.

Newt O'Harra, Lexington, chairman and John Wightman, member of the board of supervisors, were named to represent the district at a state soil district meeting in Eugene Nov. 29 and 30.

The monthly progress report showed three irrigation dams constructed on the Joe Kenny, Mrs. Annie Healy and Ashbeck and Luciano ranches on Butter creek; 28 acres of land leveling on the John Hanna and Charles Monagle ranches, Hinton creek and E. B. Wattenberger ranch, Pine City; 7,470 feet of stream channel control on the ranches of Monagle, George Currin, John Hanna, Alfred Lovgren and Van Scholack brothers ranches and 1000 linear feet of diversion ditches on the Con Doherty ranch, Guardane.

Attending the meeting were O'Harra, Wightman, Don Peterson, Raymond Lundell, Ione; Raymond French, Tom Wilson and N. C. Anderson, Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith and family visited with friends in Prairie City over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rosewall were in The Dalles today on a business trip.

35 Attend Annual C of C Elk Dinner

Chamber of Commerce members were hosts Monday night to their wives and other guests for the annual elk dinner at the Cutsforth cabin. The elk was furnished by Orville Cutsforth and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Blakney were in charge of the dinner.

About thirty five attended.

Grain Growers Meeting Tuesday

The annual meeting of the Morrow County Grain Growers will be held next Tuesday, Nov. 13 at the Lexington Grange hall starting at 10 a. m.

Members will elect two directors and seven associate directors with Paul Jones and John Graves having been nominated to succeed themselves for the directors positions. They are running for a three-year term.

Lunch will be served at noon and during the afternoon a film on farming will be presented.

Bible School Sets High Sunday Goal

The teachers of the Christian church Bible school have set a goal of 1354 for next Sunday, it was announced this week. Every member is urged to be present and friends of the church who do not attend elsewhere are invited to attend and help reach the goal.

The Sunday services will close the successful evangelistic series of meetings conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Carty. They will show colored slides of the Belgian Congo at the union missionary meeting to be held Sunday at 2 p. m. at Valby Lutheran church. Mrs. Carty spent a number of days in the Congo while on her round-the-world trip in 1955.

John Williams New Empire Manager, Grabill Moved Up

Robert Grabill who has been manager of Empire Machinery Company in Heppner and its predecessor, Braden Tractor Co. for 20 years, has been named assistant to the company's president, Jack Whiteman, and will move to Pendleton shortly to take over his new duties.

Named to replace Grabill as manager of the Heppner store is John Williams who has been in the Heppner branch since 1950. He came here from Pendleton.

Grabill will take over some of the duties of the president and will be in charge of inventory control of machinery for the entire implement chain of six stores. He will move his family to Pendleton shortly.

UNICEF Drive Nets $35 In Heppner

The Episcopal Sunday school this week expressed its appreciation to the people of Heppner and to the mothers who supervised the group of children who worked for UNICEF Hallowe'en campaign to raise money for the United Nations childrens fund. The 35 youngsters collected $35. Mrs. Jack Loyd, chairman announced.

The chairman also expressed thanks to Hager's Dairy for the donation of milk cartons which were used by the youngsters for coin collectors.

Justice And Municipal Courts

A. M. Ferguson, speeding, forfeited $30 bail.

James L. Bennett, speeding, fined $75.

Mrs. Louise Ritchie, who has been living in Los Angeles for most of the past six years, has returned to Heppner to make her home.

FORMER MORGAN RESIDENT BURIED AT ARLINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Troedson attended funeral services for Frank Marvel Wednesday at Arlington. The service was held at the Methodist church with the Rev. Alfred Boyer officiating.

Mr. Marvel was well known in the Morgan community, having lived there for several years. After leaving Morgan he went to Roosevelt, then moving to Goldendale about two years ago where he resided with a son. He died in the Goldendale hospital following an operation. He was 84 years of age.

Present for the services were Mr. Marvel's three sons, two brothers, Charley and Rae and one sister. One brother and one sister were unable to attend because of illness.

P-TA TO SEE FILM

A film, A Desk for Billy, will be shown at the Heppner P-TA meeting Wednesday, Nov. 14, it was announced this week.

Parents are also urged to attend classes with their children next week during the open house set for three days during American Education Week.

Mrs. Herman Green and Mrs. Mervin Leonard traveled through the County last Friday to deliver Christmas Seals sale supplies to local chairmen in Lexington, Irrigon and Boardman. The annual sale of Christmas seals will begin November 15, under the direction of Mrs. Jack Angel, Morrow County T. B. and Health Association chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. William Barratt and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Smith and families attended the O. S. C. University of Washington game in Portland last Saturday.

First of GMC's Blue Chip Money-Makers for '57: Pound for pound, it's...

the most powerful truck ever built!

New GMC light duties with 206 h.p. and new styling advances how to no passenger car on any point of roadability

HERE, headlining GMC's 1957 Blue Chip Money-Makers, our new light duty becomes a truly phenomenal vehicle.

It has one horsepower for every 15½ pounds of its weight.

You'll be bossing around engine power usually found only in trucks rated at more than four times this truck's capacity.

You'll be getting flashing response to pedal demand—high-mileage efficiency from an unstraining engine—work capacity that won't drop off after a few months.

And you'll be very definitely in pocket, too. THIS light-duty engine cannot be overtaxed in normal use. So there's little chance of parts failure, no excessive wear, or repair needs due to engine strain.

If money-making power is what you want, here it is! Come in and see us for all the facts.

GMC TRUCKS for '57

See us, too, for Triple-Checked used trucks

FARLEY MOTOR COMPANY

MAY AND CHASE

HEPPNER, ORE

UMATILLA - MORROW COUNTY

Cattlemen's Association

FIRST ANNUAL

Feeder Sale

Thursday, November 15

AT

NORTHWEST LIVESTOCK COMMISSION COMPANY

Hermiston, Oregon

1600 FEEDER CATTLE, CALVES AND YEARLINGS DIRECT FROM PRODUCER

Shipping Fever Vaccinated, Sorted In Car Lots •

Immediate Shipment - Truck or Rail

FOR INFORMATION CONTACT

NELS ANDERSON, Heppner

GARY THOMPSON, Phone 4880, P. O. Box 256, Pendleton

DON WINK, Phone JO 7-6655, Hermiston