Messenger-Laney Wedding Held At Lexington Church

At the Christian church in Lexington on Tuesday afternoon, October 30 Miss Sue Laney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Laney was united in marriage to Pvt. Gerald Messenger, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Messenger, Sr. of Mitchell.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a white brocade dress with finger tip veil. She carried a white Bible with a cascade of pink carnations.

The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. Norman Northrup.

Miss Rosetta Laney, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Dora Sue Davidson, bridesmaid. Both wore coral colored ballerina length dresses and carried nosegays of white carnations.

Carroll Messenger was best man for his brother and usher was James Laney, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Carl Marquardt, sister of the groom, played the wedding music and accompanied Truman Messenger, Jr., brother of the groom, who sang "The Lord's Prayer".

Candlelighters were T. E. Messenger Jr. and Franklin Messenger.

Following the ceremony, while the couple knelt at the altar, Franklin Messenger sang "The Wedding Prayer".

The church was decorated with baskets of pink and white flowers.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony.

The table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a two tier cake decorated with a miniature bride and groom and wedding bells. The cake was made and decorated by Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt.

The pink rose bud theme was carried out elsewhere in the room and the napkins were adorned with pink rosebuds.

Pouring were Mrs. T. E. Messenger, Jr. of Hermiston and Mrs. G. A. Hudspeth, Madras, an aunt of the bride. Cutting the cake was Mrs. Franklin Messenger.

For going away the bride wore a champagne colored two-piece suit with beige accessories.

After a short wedding trip the bride will continue her studies at Lexington high school where she is a senior and the groom will go to his Marine base in California.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hudspeth and children, Madras; Mrs. Flossie Coats, Mr. and Mrs. Zearl Gillispie, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Messenger, Sr. all of Boardman; Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Messenger, Jr., Hermiston and the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Messenger, Sr. of Mitchell.
