

Heppner High School SCOOP

By Jan Beamer
 Announcement was made that the party for high school seniors will be held December 1. Heppner students look forward to this evening of fun.
 The annual Sadie Hawkins was held Wednesday, Nov. 20. It was sponsored by senior class. Students not wearing proper Sadie and Li'l Abtumes were fined 50c each. Sulted in a number of very nice costumes which added to the gaiety of the dance.
 There are many colorful baskets appearing around the school in recent days as the seniors are sponsoring the sale of pins in order to enrich their treasury. The pins consist of gold and gold ribbons with a gold basketball attached which has the word "MUSKIE" on it. These pins are proving popular.
 The seniors in the National Education week competition, based on number of visiting parents, are the juniors. The sophomore second place. All of the students were very pleased to interest shown by participating in the actual classes. Only all of the trophies at the High got a thorough going. This clean-up job was set of the local National Society.
 The recent student council meeting it was decided to invite the people from the town to attend our student body meetings. It is the hope of the council members that such open meetings will tend to develop more interest in the actual student government and the projects which it sponsors.

 A student body meeting was held Tuesday, November 27. Ed Groshens gave a report on the meeting he had attended at Stanfield. The meeting had been called to discuss the awarding of trophies for basketball season and particularly the award for good sportsmanship. Additional information will be given regarding this award in a future issue of the Scoop. Annual reports were also given at this meeting. It was decided to give half of the gate receipts from the lone game to Dick Kononen. Football letters were awarded by Mr. Mallon.

 After the student body meeting, student council members were proudly displaying their new official pins, which were issued at the meeting.

PONY KICKS

By Shirlee Upton
 Students from Mrs. Boulden's room visiting out of town for Thanksgiving were Geraldine—Portland; Norma — Corvallis; Marion—Milton-Freewater; Ronnie—Pendleton; Billy — Arlington; Dennis—Ione.

These students entertained guests from out of town; Sharon received relatives from Condon, Boardman, and Washington; Libby—relatives from the ranch; William—uncle from Elgin; and Eddie an uncle.

Cheerleaders To Be Chosen
 Cheerleaders for the grade school will be chosen at an assembly to be held Friday, November 30. A large number of girls are trying out for the four cheerleader positions.

Constitution Completed
 Completion of the grade school constitution was verified by the constitution committee and a constitutional assembly will be held very soon in order to collect votes from the student body.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ferguson returned the end of the week from Everett, Washington where they spent Thanksgiving with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelly.
