WRIGHT-MAJESKE WEDDING EVENT OF SUNDAY AT HEPPNER CHURCH

By Delpha Jones
Sunday afternoon at the Seventh Day Adventist church in Heppner, Miss Patricia Majeske, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Majeske, was united in marriage to Harvey Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Whitmer Wright of Heppner. The marriage ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Merlin Zeir of the Hope Lutheran church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white ballerina length gown of lace over slipper satin, fashioned by herself. Her finger tip illusion veil was held in place by a cap of seed pearls and lace. She carried a bouquet of winter white mums centered by a white orchid. Her sister, Mrs. Jack Mounts of Lexington, was matron of honor wearing autumn green ballerina length princess style dress and carried Emerald Isle green mums with orange changeable ribbon. The bridesmaids, Miss Alice Nichols of Eugene and Miss Rose Iwasaki of Hillsboro and former classmates at the Good Samaritan school of nursing, were lovely in identical gold colored princess style dresses and carried nosegays of Emerald Isle green mums.

Debbie Majeske was flower girl and Stephen Mounts ring bearer, and Donald Majeske and Ginger Majeske lit the candles.

Best man was a brother of the groom, Jim Wright and ushers were Gene Majeske and Jack Mounts.

Mrs. C. C. Carmichael played incidental music and the wedding march and accompanied Leonard Munkers who sang, "I Love Thee" and "Oh Perfect Love". The church was lovely with candelabra and white mums beautifully placed in white baskets. The brides mother wore slate blue with white accessories and wore a cimbiddium corsage, and the grooms mother, beige with blue accessories and wore a entogalssum orchid corsage.

A reception was held in the I. O. O. F. hall in Lexington with Mrs. C. C. Jones in charge. The tables were beautiful with the brides cake with the traditional bride and groom top adorned with white and yellow roses, with candle stick holders adorned with yellow mums. On the piano was a fall bouquet of mums. Preceding the reception incidental music was played by Charlene Jones who was also in charge of the guest book. Pouring was Mrs. Henry Rauch and Mrs. Jim Wright and serving was Mrs. Gene Majeske. In charge of the gifts was Mrs. John Hartman and Mrs. Orval Matheny. In charge of the refreshments were Mrs. Earl Warner and Mrs. W. E. McMillan and assisting about the room was Mrs. George Irvin.

For going away the bride wore blue wool with white accessories and wore a white orchid corsage. After a short wedding trip to Canada the young couple will be at home in Arlington where the groom is employed in the Gilliam County bank.

Those from out of town attending the ceremony were Miss Rose Iwasaki of Hillsboro; Mrs. Nichols and daughter of Eugene; Doc and Mrs. Stenfelt of Union; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Marshall of Richland; Mr. and Mrs. George Whall of Kent, Washington; Miss Marj Aldinger of Vancouver, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Allen of Adenau, Washington.
