Monument News

By Martha Matteson
 A buffet supper in honor of Mrs. Iris Fisher of Heppner was held at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Flower, Saturday evening, Nov. 17. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Rho Bleakman, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cork, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cork. The Cork men and Mrs. Bleakman are cousins of Mrs. Fisher and Leo Flower. The evening was spent reminiscing and looking over pictures belonging to Grandmother Flower who was once the photographer for the Monument country.

After spending a week visiting here Mrs. Fisher plans to visit a short while with a sister at Athena then will go to California to visit children.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Kincaid, Tommy Haywood and Mr. and Mrs. George Capon drove to Bend Nov. 23 for dental appointments and to visit Grandmother Capon.

Dinner guests at the Lee Flemings home Nov. 22 were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Cox and children of Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wiese and children of Monument.

Mrs. Dick Williams left Nov. 23 for Pasco to spend 10 days with Dick's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Flewhardy.

Mr. and Mrs. Vic DuBosch, Mr. and Mrs. Norman DuBosch of Pendleton, and Helen Brown were dinner guests at the Charles Roach home Nov. 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Crocker and Ronny and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cork and children were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martin Nov. 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kingman and Mrs. Elmer Matteson were in John Day Nov. 19 on business.

Bud Engle and children returned home Monday from Mollalla where they had been for two weeks. Mrs. Engle stayed there for another week.

Robert Gertson spent three days in Portland with his mother.

Dinner guests at the Matteson home Nov. 23 were L. J. Matteson of Pilot Rock, Harley Matteson, Heppner; Dale Matteson, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Scott and son of Long Creek, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kingman.

Mrs. Clara Flower was told by phone Monday that two of her pupils had placed high on the turkey coloring contest that was held by Chester's Market of John Day for children of the first three grades. Janice Cavender, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jock Cavender won first prize of a 16 pound turkey and Ronny Croker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Croker won third prize of a picnic.

4-H Club News

IONE JOLLY CHEFS
 The Jolly Chefs cooking club met at the home of Dianna Pettyjohn Dec. 1. We had a business meeting and Mrs. Baker had us tell what was wrong with a table setting. We received our cooking and record books.

Two members have joined the club, they are Michelle and Cheryl Morrison. Our junior leader will be Mardine Baker.

It has been decided to hold our meetings on the second Saturday and the fourth Wednesday of every month. All meetings will begin at 1:30 p. m. Our next meeting will be Dec. 15 at the Baker home.

Dianna and her mother served refreshments after the meeting. Merlyn Morgan, reporter.

THE IONE TEEN-AGE STITCHERS
 The members of the Teen-age Stitches pinned and cut out the garment they are going to make. The all day meeting was held at the home of our club leader, Mrs. Betty Carlson on December 1. All members were present but one. Our next meeting is planned for December 15 at our leader's home. Jean Martin, reporter

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Johnson and family spent the Thanksgiving holidays in Seattle visiting relatives and friends.

HAPPY BLUE BIRDS

The Happy Blue Birds met at the home of their leader, Mrs. Stockard. We had the flag salute then we sang the Blue Bird wish and "There is a little girl".

The secretary-treasurer gave her report and we had election of officers. They are: president, Barbara Blake; vice president, Vicky Barratt; secretary-treasurer, Karen McCurdy; reporter Joan Stockard; refreshment chairman, Lynn Burkenbine; song leader, Jean Stockard.

We sang Christmas carols and worked on our puppets. Tamara served refreshments.

Joan Stockard, reporter

O-KI-ZU

The O-Ki-Zu Camp Fire group was opened in the usual form. Under old business it was discussed about our carrolling and for some time we practiced our carols.
