LEILA McLACHLAN, THOMAS SULLIVAN MARRIED IN SATURDAY CEREMONY

An event of Saturday afternoon at the Heppner Methodist church was the blue and white wedding of Leila McLachlan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McLachlan to Thomas E. Sullivan, son of Mrs. Mary Sullivan and W. F. Sullivan of Los Angeles. Rev. Lester Boulden officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white brocade satin ballerina length gown, fashioned along princess lines with long sleeves and a vee neck. Her shoulder length veil was held in place with a Juliet cap of the same material and was trimmed with pearls. Her bouquet was a single white Cattaleya orchid centered in a wedding ring of white satin feathered mums which she carried on a white bible with blue satin streamers.

Matron of honor was Mrs. David Moreside of Spokane, who was gowned in azure blue taffeta princess style dress, ballerina length with short sleeves. She carried a cascade of white feathered mums with azure blue ribbon streamers and centered with a corsage of white feathered chrysanthemums.

The best man was Bill Sullivan of Spokane, brother of the groom and ushers were Boyd Smith of Spokane and Darrel McLachlan of Heppner.

Mrs. Victor Kreimeyer played the wedding music and Victor Kreimeyer sang "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Flowers used about the church were white chrysanthemums with blue bows, white candleabra and white mums were used at the altar.

The mother of the bride wore a rose faille afternoon dress with matching hat, pink chrysanthemum corsage and black accessories. The mother of the groom wore a slate blue afternoon dress with matching hat, pink chrysanthemum corsage and black accessories.

At the reception following, in the basement of the church, the blue and white color scheme was carried out by a centerpiece on the tea table of blue dutch iris and white chrysanthemums with silver leaves and white satin bows. Small yellow butterflies used in the flower arrangement matched the yellow in the iris.

Mrs. Alvin Wagenblast cut the three tiered cake which was decorated with blue coloring and topped with a bride and groom. Mrs. Darrel McLachlan had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Don Bennett poured. Mrs. John Bergstrom was in charge of the reception and Mrs. Velma Glass assisted in serving.

For going away the bride wore a navy blue suit with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

She is a graduate of Heppner high school and attended Kinman Business College in Spokane where she has been employed by Ernst and Ernst, Accounting. The groom took business training in Spokane following two years in the service and is now employed as an auditor in Los Angeles where the couple will reside.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sullivan, Spokane;

Miss Mary Sullivan, Pullman; Mrs. Moreside, Spokane, the matron of honor; Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Smith, Spokane; Mrs. Mary Sullivan and W. F. Sullivan, Los Angeles, the groom's parents; Mrs. Molly McLachlan, Moro and Mrs. Bert Beishe, The Dalles.
