Holiday Inn Theme of Pre-Christmas Party At Koenig Home

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Koenig, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Blakney and Mr. and Mrs. John Williams were hosts at a pre-Christmas party at the Koenig home Saturday evening.

Preceding the buffet at mid-night, the guests played cards, sang carols and enjoyed dancing to the music of records and a pantomime orchestra with Paul Koenig at the organ, John Williams, trombone, Phil Blakney, trumpet and LaVerne Van Marter, clarinet. The floor show consisted of pantomime numbers by Mrs. William Labhart as Bing Crosby, Mrs. James Norene as Gary Crosby and Mrs. Koenig as Pearl Bailey. Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter was official photographer and took pictures of the thirty four couples present and the hosts and hostesses.

The theme of the party was Holiday Inn and Bing Crosby was asked as a special guest. He was unable to attend but sent a personal letter to the hosts.

St. Monica's Guild Elects New Officers

St. Monica's Guild of the Episcopal church held a regular meeting Tuesday night of last week in the parish house with ten present.

Members were given a report on the St. Monica's doll and new officers were elected as follows: Mrs. Herbert Hamilton, president; Mrs. Robert Dobbs, vice president; and Mrs. Larry Downen, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Hamilton and Mrs. William Labhart were hostesses for refreshments.
