CAPITAL PARADE Continued from Page 2 simpler in earlier days. There was much vote buying as early as 1890. Party workers did not work as hard nor so many days before an election. Nearly all the political work was right at the polls and closer to the voter—with a ballot in one hand and $2 bill in the other. DUNNE REAPPOINTED T. Morris Dunne, veteran of nearly a quarter of a century as a member of the state industrial accident commission and the state unemployment commission, was reappointed Tuesday by Governor Elmo Smith. He is the employer representative on the commission. His term would have expired on January 8, 1957.

Dunne has served under eight governors and this is his seventh appointment to the two commissions. He is now chairman of the unemployment compensation commission. Governor Smith said Dunne had strong industry support for reappointment.

ROAD ERROR VOIDS SUIT Traveling on a one-way street against traffic and entering a through street without first making a full stop is contributory negligence which prevents a plaintiff's right to recovery no matter how negligent the defendant may have been, the State Supreme Court held Wednesday.

The opinion was in connection with the denial of a petition for rehearing filed by Tony Senger, Portland, in suit for damages against the Vancouver-Portland Bus Company.

DEFER PHONE RATE TEA It took the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co.'s council only three hours to argue that the company needs a $3,200,000 annual boost in rates in order to finance $155 million worth of construction in Oregon in the next five years, when he appeared before the public utilities commissioner's staff Wednesday.

There was no opposition at Wednesday's hearing, although it is possible that some might develop.

The company claims it has a return of only 5.3 on its investment while Utilities Commissioner Heitzel says the present return is 5.7. The company has asked for an increase of more than 27 per cent if its present returns.

The hearing has been postponed until mid-holiday rush, Dec. 19.

EAR GIVES PORTRAIT An oil portrait of former Justice Lawrence T. Harris is to be presented to the State Supreme Court Tuesday, Dec. 11 by the Lane County Bar Association.

The presentation ceremonies will take place in the Supreme Court room after which the portrait will be hung at a suitable location in the building.

Harris practiced law in Eugene for many years prior to his elevation to the Supreme Court and following this service returned to Eugene. He was prominent in legal circles for many years.

HATFIELD READIES STAFF Secretary of State-elect Mark Hatfield has requested the state board of higher education to grant a leave of absence to Travis Cross, assistant to the chancellor for a year's assignment with the department of state.

Gala Fruit Cake

It is not too early to begin making your holiday fruit cakes now for it is best to age the cake properly—at least a month, and six weeks time is better. During this period the flavor mellows and moisture in fruits and cake equalize so that it is easy to cut. This recipe makes two cakes, a round one and a loaf. The cakes are rich and delicious with lots of candied fruits, dried fruits, nuts, a bit of canned pineapple and a touch of Sherry wine. Here's how we like to store this delicious fruit cake. Remove baking papers from cooled cakes and wrap in cloth moistened in California dessert wine. Then wrap again in waxed paper or aluminum foil. Place in covered metal container. Occasionally (about once a week), sprinkle several tablespoons of wine over cloth to keep slightly moist. Before wrapping as a gift, glaze and decorate. To glaze, boil corn syrup a few seconds and brush on the cake. Decorate with dried fruit and almonds.

- GALA FRUIT CAKE
1 1/2 cups light or dark raisins
1 cup seeded raisins
1/2 cup syrup from canned pineapple
2 tablespoons California Sherry
1 cup dried apricots
1 1/2 cups prunes
2 cups sugar for fruit
1 cup water
1 cup butter or margarine
1 cup sugar
5 eggs
2 cups sifted cake flour
1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
2 cups roasted blanched almonds
3/4 cup finely cut canned pineapple
1 pound candied cherries
1 cup broken walnuts

Rinse and drain raisins. Combine with pineapple syrup and Sherry, cover closely and let stand over night to plump fruit. Rinse apricots and prunes, cover with boiling water and cook 15 minutes. Drain. Heat 2 cups sugar with 1 cup water to boiling. Add apricots and cook slowly 20 minutes. Remove apricots to wire rack to drain, reserving syrup. Remove pits from prunes, and cook in same syrup for 10 minutes. Drain on wire rack. Cream shortening and remaining 1 cup sugar together thoroughly. Beat in eggs one at a time. Reserve 3/4 cup flour for fruits. Sift remaining flour with baking powder and salt. Blend into creamed mixture. Stir in plumped raisins. Chop almonds, apricots and prunes; combine with pineapple, halved cherries and walnuts. Mix reserved flour with fruit-nut mixture, pour batter over it and blend well. Turn into 8-inch tube pan and small loaf pan (about 8 1/2 x 4 1/2 x 2 1/2 inches) which have been lined with 2 thicknesses greased brown paper. Bake in slow oven (300° F.) with shallow pan of hot water on floor of oven. Tube pan will require about 3 1/2 hours, loaf pan about 3 hours. Remove cakes to wire rack to cool, but do not remove paper. Remove baking paper before wrapping in wine soaked cloth and then in waxed paper or foil. Weighs about 6 pounds.
