

Lex High School Gives Play Friday

By Delpha Jones
The Lexington high school play "Have a Date" was given on Friday with a good crowd in attendance. The following had parts: Hugo Leyva, Dora Sue Davidson, Dexter Miles, Keith Peck, and Raymond Schoonover. The director was Mrs. Nola Coval. Lexington will go to Umapine on Friday night for their first game of the season, and will meet Weston on the local floor on Saturday night with Umapine here again on Monday night.

The Lexington P-TA met on Tuesday night at the school auditorium. The budget committee made their report which was accepted for the year. The program consisted of a dance number of modern ballet by Martha Doherty and Beverly Davidson, a number by the men's quartet, and a reading by Jo Irvin, followed by an accordion solo by Stanley Schoonover. Refreshments were served later in the cafeteria.

Holly Rebekah Lodge met at the regular time on Thursday of last week with Alice Majeske,

Vice Grand filling the chair of the N. G. Otilia Hunt who is a patient in Pioneer Memorial hospital. After the business meeting, a program honoring all members of ten years or over was given and each member was presented a small remembrance from the lodge. Mrs. Audrey Mounts who is leaving to live at Tacoma, Washington was presented a "going away gift" and then our faithful member Mrs. Art Keen who will be a 50 year member in January was presented a gift and a cake. The cake was a beautiful flat cake decorated with the lodge colors and in gold across the top 50 year member Annie Keene. This was made by the N. G. Otilia Hunt. A program was enjoyed which consisted of a reading by June Cooper, and the lighting of the Christmas candles of the Christmas commandments with all taking part. Later refreshments were served both the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs.

Mrs. Ray Dolven who has been a patient in Pioneer Memorial hospital in Heppner has been moved to St. Anthon's in Pendleton, being taken over on Saturday by ambulance.

The cub scouts met on Monday night for the regular meeting, at the Henderson and Jones homes. Den 2 made dutch shoes in keeping with the theme of the month, and den 1 were guests of one of its members Gene Heliker at his home where a good time was enjoyed by all and were later served refreshments. Mrs. W. J. Van Winkle and Mrs. C. C. Jones took the boys out.

ADDING TO THEIR TREASURY—Jim Morris, left president of the Future Business Leaders club at Heppner high school, is receiving a check from Dr. E. K. Schaffitz, one of the club's sponsors, on behalf of the chamber of commerce for the work the group did in preparing the evergreen streamers used for the city's Christmas street decorations. Watching are other club officers, left to right, Ed Groshens, Vic Groshens, Phyllis Quackenbush, Mrs. Margaret Kirk, advisor; Meredith Thomson and Dick Brunner, chairman of the chamber merchant's committee. Student Council Minutes

The Heppner high school student council has adopted two projects to enter in The Denim Council, a project for National Association of Student Councils. One of the projects is a safety campaign for the community and the other is a project to raise money for the needy children throughout the nation. Twenty-five dollar United States savings bonds will be the top twenty awards plus a framed certificate.

Last year the second semester student council members failed to receive their student council pins. These members will receive pins at the next student body meeting.

A program is being set up whereby one senior girl will attend the Soroptimist club each week, one senior boy will attend the Chamber of Commerce meetings each week.

Jim Morris reported on the new football uniforms that are being ordered. Ten gold jerseys, ten pair of gold pants, and thirty blue jerseys with gold sleeve inserts are to be ordered.

The cheerleaders took second place in the yell leader contest during the Umatilla jamboree December 3.

The senior class won the annual sales contest by selling the most "Mustangs". The annual staff held a Slave Day whereby the seniors made them their slaves. Slave services included such things as carrying books, doing home work, shining shoes, haircuts and manicures. A party was held on Wednesday for the winners.

The band and chorus have been preparing for the Christmas concert, December 19 at 8:00 in the high school gym. Something seems to have per-

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh
Just Call Me Cupid

The counter down at Pete's was full yesterday, except for three seats near the end, so I plunked myself down on the middle one.

As I took my first sip of coffee a cute young couple came in—a girl in her early twenties followed by a fellow perhaps a year or two older. Without saying a word, they took the only two seats left—on either side of me.

Remembering my younger days, I insisted the young man take my seat so's they could be together. He hesitated at first, then finally he shrugged, grinned and said to the girl, "Well, let's make him happy. My name's 'Ricky'. What's yours?"

From where I sit, there was no harm done that time, but jumping to conclusions can be embarrassing. In fact, it's sometimes mean and intolerant—like the way some folks jump to the conclusion a man's "wrong" to prefer a glass of beer over another beverage. Lack of facts coupled with lack of judgment introduces trouble.
